Back in the 90's there was a Parisite named Angus who had a big studio in Scotland. Perhaps you knew him if you were a distributor? I can't remember his last name or the name of the place, but it was a fairly substantial commercial facility. I have a (perhaps inaccurate) recollection is that he may have migrated to Nuendo. You might check that forum and search for posts under the name Angus.....I dunno.....wish I could help. Half my family tree are Scots (McLardy - the other half is Joyce - Welsh/Irish by way of Normandy circa 1066) and I've never even been to either place.

I'd love to come for a visit, but it's not in the cards right now.

Best of luck,
DJ

Wasn't it Angus that won different prizes for his jazzrecordings with Paris?

I think it was Caber Music with Tom Bancroft that won jazzprizes.
I found this old site that can be a help:

http://www.cabermusic.com/

Thanks guys, I'll start the paper trail and see what follows.

there was also a (post production, I think) studio in Leith (edinburgh) that were stalwarts of the system, can't for the life of me remember the name, but its worth checking into.

thanks again

Kerr
