They arrived today and believe it or not I'm having second thoughts about keeping them around. The reason - well to use them would require a completely new computer to be built and quite frankly with no gigs lined up at the present time I can't justify the added expense.

So if you're in the market for a pair shoot me an email with an offer

DonHi Torry,

I just tried your email @ sound loop dot com.
We just got word that a bunch of PARIS

for , Ins /outs/EDS's / MEC's/C16's ...
