Hey folks,

This is sample of artist in development over at my place.
We're having a great time working on singing /arranging techniques and I'd like to share the results.

<http://www.qbdigital.com/newpvsample.htm>

We've been working on getting the singer controlling the compression while he sings. There are still problems with some popping and sibilance and we'll be working on that.

I know there are better ways to do what we are doing, but I'm still a novice at this.

I'm honored to have good artists to work with and time is always limited.

Thanks for listening.

Lance

Nice.... wish I could sing! and nice piano.
Mix sounds good to me...

Thanks for the compliments.
That's my trusty but rusty Roland HP 1500 digital grand.

The recording is of two performers / writers.
The singer wrote the lyrics and melody.

Best,
Lance
