I just got up (7:51 here) but in the next couple of hours I'll head off to move the main server over here and restore services to normal. I think the DNS chan

expect it's complete.

Cheers,
Kim.

A few hours. I was going to run off to the old house and get the main server, then I remembered that my brother will be asleep and some gear is in his room. I estimate he'll be up in about 2 hours, so probably 3-5 hours from now NNTP will be back online and everything will be back to normal.

Cheers,
Kim.Thanks and good luck
