Hi All

I'm looking for a few good CD pressing houses in both Canada and the US to do a run of either 500 or 1000 CDs not CDR's

All suggestions are welcome

Discmakers - great quality, service and options. Prices may not be the least expensive, but I've never been disappointed. They also do online ordering for short runs (self service - upload your masters, artwork, etc, or send it in - quick turnaround).

Nice people, good work. They did ours and we'll be going back for the next one.

Hi Don-

I have a CD/DVD dup/rep company. I'm in the Toronto area, and the quality and turnaround times are excellent. I would also be happy to give a "Paris

user

discount" on top of already low prices. We can ship to you no problem, we just shipped a DVD order to Chicago (I think you're in Ottawa right?)

Our website needs an overhaul but you can check us out here:

Take care,

Ted

Hey Don, there's place up there in Surrey, BC called CDMan - used 'em once - they're pretty good & the prcies were reasonable. Saves you tariff charges, too, if you don't have to ship from here across the border.

:~P I was in a comedy club in Vancouver once where the comedian asked if anyone was from Surrey... he then proceeded to welcome them to Canada... if you had ever lived there, you would understand the joke... ;-)

David.
