Ok, I got this shakey egg for $2 and it sounds awesome. Then I found this scotch tape dispenser that has sand in the bottom and when you shake it the tape roll rattles in sync and adds a great sound to the sand shakey sound.

So, what cheap / free instruments do you guys love. They have about 5 different size cowbells at the feed and seed I might have to setup an array. hehe

I once used a large plastic bin with about 3-5lbs of dog food kibbles left in it for a deep shaker/accnt sound. It fit the song.

Drumsticks on a metal chair makes for interesting percussion, but wear ear plugs.

If you use a conditioner-plus-shampoo bottle, it leaves a nice sheen on the sound.

I used an empty CD case to mimic knee slapping and a cheese grater and a chopstick to mimic a washboard for this "sittin on the front porch jammin" style tune once.

You know if you guys were talking about this on r.a.p., the topic would turn into a: "What's the best empty CD case for under 99 cents to record emulated knee-slapping with?" thread.

BTW, is that newsgroup still very active? I haven't visited there for, geez, probably a couple of years. Or did they all migrate over to gearslutz?

True story: I was all alone at home at Chrstitmas-time, years ago, late teens. I was reading on my couch, and leaned over casually to let one rip. Totally routine, just a young feller passing a little gas.

But it came out as a pure tone, just as sweet as a trumpet note, no audible distortion, just pure sweet tone. Nobody was there to hear it, but I laughed hysterically, of course.

Sorry for that.
