....I can see I'll need a new one soon.

Fortunately there's a backup machine in waiting...

Cheers,
Kim.

It seems to go out around the time I should be going to bed anyway so this might be a good thing.....but, since I'm an insoniac, I think you should let us PayPal you some $$$ to buy a new computer and UPS dammit!!!! If you're going to have to hassle with maintaining a server for us, I think that's the least we could do.

I'm good for a few bucks as well.

Thanks for doing this.

Kim,

You will be sainted one day for your contributions to this group.

I'm in.

As you say, "Cheers"!

Actually there's nothing wrong with the system. It's just that a few concerned groupers have emailed me about your sleeping (or lack of) habits, and hence we decided to shut the machine off when it's DeeJ's bedtime. ;o)

Plus I thought I could extort some money out of you. ;o)

Cheers,
Kim.
