What happened to the Paris 2.2 and 3.0 down loads from ID's site? How long have they been gone?

I did a quick search, doesn't seem like much of anything is available any more, not even from that lame parisfaqs.com website.

I think I know what I need to do...

You know Doug, I think you should get the domain names ensoniqparis.com and emuparis.com and post the stuff there! Lol! ... Or you could update the links on the parisfaq site and link everything to each other: )

I still like the parisfaq site, it just needs a little updating. I just down loaded 2.2 from your site. Thanks for keeping the site up all these years!

James
