>Hi Neil,
One of the candidates is the AKG mic if you wanna this included in the trade.
I have also a Paris output card, Paris input card, a Symetrix 8 channel limiter/compressor named 488 Dynasqueeze.
I have already a sync plate don't know if I would need a second...:)
I may even consider (not sure right now !) a transient designer SPL device, but with this is more than a pulsar card so maybe shipping both ways expenses might be included and maybe the syncplate too if I decide to let it go and you are in need of one.
I am tempted (hey DJ you know this feeling,right ?) because I have transient designer under scope !

Dimitrios

No offense here but I can get a used pulsar II for 350$ and Transient designer used is sometimes more or selling at least at this price.
I would not ask for a direct trade if I knew the two goods are far apart
,BUT I respect your oppinion and thanks for talking...

  I could use one I think.

  Shoot me an email if you do.
