Hi All,

It has been some time since I visited the PARIS community, but am still happily using it (or unhappily sometimes if I try to insert silence in an audio file and it crashes!)

Anyway, I write this post purely for the intention of doing some shameless plugging of my entry in the Real World studios remix competition of Peter Gabriel's 'Shock the monkey'.

This was created/mixed exclusively in PARIS in one 8 hour session (time isn't plentiful when you're a househusband). If anyone would like to hear my efforts, please visit the link below:

If you feel inclined and consider it worthy please feel free to rate/add my mix to your top 10 - (that's the real shameless bit) - you do need to sign up (it is free and they don't spam you) to do that though.

Regards,
Nic Grant
