Mahatma Gandhi, walked barefoot most of the time, which produced an = impressive set of calluses on his feet. He also ate very little, which = made him rather frail and with his odd diet, he suffered from bad = breath. This made him...

A super callused fragile mystic hexed by halitosis.=20

The dentist tells the patient that his upper plate needs to be made of = chrome because of the patient's penchant for Hollandaise sauce (which = has a lot of lemon juice in it, and is corrosive to most dental = appliances). Why chrome?=20

There's no plate like chrome for the Hollandaise.

Oh no you di-int....

A long time ago, back in the autumn of 1952, when Bing Crosby was filming the movie "White Christmas" in New Hampshire, the Mayor of Nashua, NH thought it would be a great idea to have Bing visit their fair town & present him with the key to the city on the steps of City Hall. You know, a nice little photo op for the mayor's re-election & a way for some of the town's dignitaries to meet the Great Bing Crosby.

Now one as to remember, Bing Crosby at this time was at the peak of his singing career. He was bigger than Elvis, the Beatles, Sinatra & the Beach Boys all put together. He crossed generational lines, admired by young & old as one of the "coolest cats" in the music world.

Well, word leaked out that Bing would be in town so hundreds of teenagers skipped school to attend the little ceremony. The authorities were not prepared for such a large crowd, there were only a few policemen present, and things soon got out of hand. Pushing & shoving began as the teenagers all wanted to get closer to see their hero. It soon looked like the Mayor was going to have a riot on his hands and he was growing more frantic by the minute. All he wanted was a nice little ceremony with Bing and now he had a full fledged uprising threatening to ruin everything.

Throughout all this Bing was seated in his chair, calmly observing what was happening. When the crowd started to push through the barricades that were set up, he had had enough. Bing got up, strolled to the microphone & said in a commanding voice, "All right, everyone cool down right now"! The rioting crowd immediately calmed down and the Mayor's little ceremony went on without a hitch & everyone went home happy.

The next day the headline in the newspaper read: CROSBY STILL NASHUA YOUNG!!

Merry Xmas to All!!!

OK!!!! THAT'S ENOUGH!!!!

You - Nursie -- go to your room!!!! Right now!!!

Your punishment will be having a pair of Koss Pro4AAA's duct-taped to your head, while you get Britney Spears in one side, and endless Nickelback in the other, with Yoko Ono's solo material at the same time in both.

So I'm not the only one who thinks Chad Kroeger can't sing worth a damn? That a range of one and a half notes in a voice that sounds like it's processed through a metal wood chipper doesn't really substitute for actual talent?

Have you heard the split-track that was floating around for a while? The one with their first hit song in the left channel, their next hit in the right channel, and you realize they're the SAME DAMN SONG, right down to pacing, instrumental breaks, where they go acoustic, where they turn up the distortion, everything?????
