I asked my kid for the remastered Boston CD for my birthday.

Before Brad offed himself.

Man, it sounds great. And it is really depressing to listen to.

Depression is both a cause and a result of suicide.

They are damn amazing. Night and day with the original cd's. Scholz was allowed to drive the mastering bus this time, and it shows. Words like "open" "airy" and "soundstage" actually apply here.

Best "remastering" job I've heard in a lonnnnngggg time. (No pun intended).
