Hi All

Got a friend who wants to buy a guitar and a POD for his daughter...which brands should I be looking at.

on a different note saw an ad for a

Jay Turser Vintage Series Stratocaster
tunner, cable and gig bag
Vox VR15
$300

Anyone familiar with this set up

thanks

Don

Don,

If she's just a beginner and needs something to make some racket while hooked up to the home stereo or a pair of phones, just have him get her a POD v1 or V2 on EBay and use the extra money to buy one of these for her:

<http://www.fretlight.com/>

I picked one up last Christmas and it's an amazing learning tool.

My guitar teaching buddy has one...great tool for sure!

I'll look into the PODs and see what's what

thanks

Don
