Hi,
Hope all are well.
Take a look at:

Excellent Gene, thanks for the heads up! Nice to see Edmund and ID getting back in the pro audio game after all this time.

Ha!! they used the word "soon"!

"MegaDelayMass

It's a new kind of multi-tap delay. AND IT'S COMING SOON! "

Ya, right...

MegaDelayMass: HERE, NOW! $49 BUY NOW

A little over two weeks (and it sounds freakin' awesome).

My guess is that since they know that was previously an issue, they're going to be inclined to be particularly on their toes about it this time. If the situation were reversed, I would be - lots of folks who are serious about their business use formal tools like SWOT analysis nowadays, and figuring out ways to improve each weakness (say a PR challenge) is one of the crucial steps.

It's nice to see they have a link to this forum as well as your Paris KIWI page on the Paris legacy page.

Yeah, anyone hit the "Free" stuff button. There is nothing in there free worth looking at. I was hoping to see a copy of Paris 3.1 for free... but no....
