Major pucker factor. I've spent a little time in Ontario and the Michigan UP in the 70's and 80's but it didn't get this cold when I was there.

Yikes!!!

:-) we get that low frequently during January and February. It was -37C here last week! (-34F)... so I know what you mean. But it's a dry cold right?? ;-)

I think it's called Winter...I remember it dropping to 40F regularly when I lived in Dayton OH back in the 60's...so as we say here in Canada...Suck it up!!!!

Even though I grew up in Texas, I cut my musicians teeth in New England and Canada in the early '70s.
I remember many gigs where it was in the -45 at night and highs around -25 during the days...Made for interesting load in/outs... I actually love this weather--would take it over rain anyday...

global warming. i grew up in detroit and there were many sub-zero nights i played hockey in. it helped take the sting out of a slap shot to the shins without pads many a night.
