What a gift to get Nappy. Yes, the life is too short for many stupid things.
I have lost eight persons the last 4 months, friends and people I was very comfortable with, most of them younger than me, some of them doing stupid things like drinking their life to hell. Two of the eight was great musicians and some of my very best friends. The youngest, Olaf (57) get heart attack when visiting Egypt with his bouzouki and guitar. He loved to study folkmusic around the world. Benny got max four months to live with cancer in an age of 70, but he just got 3. I was producer on his last 6 productions, 5 of them on Paris.
Plenty of things we didn't get done with the music together, things we had planned.
I know there will allways be friends and familymembers that will help with anything, if they can.

Take care with a fresh mind.

Respect
Erling
