So, Dale Bradley decides to buy my C16. Yay. Turns out he's from Eugene Oregon. Hey, I lived there once on Sherwood Place. Turns out he has a brother on Sherwood Place. Hey, my landlord's name was Bradley.

His DAD was my landlord for 4 years from 88 to 92 and it's his brothers house and are great people! FAWK !

I have these amazing coincidences about 3 or 4 times a year and this one takes the cake. I call them brief religious experiences. Wild !

Several years ago, we had the developers of what was to become Radar in the studio here. They were asking about features we would like to see etc. We got talking and discovered that one of the guys was living in the house my parents built and I lived in as a kid in Vancouver. Pretty wild indeed!

Those things are weird. I once had a pizza delivery guy tell me that he grew up in the house that I live in now. It would have been an enlightening experience if the guy wasn't a freakin' fruitcake. I still think that there may be bodies buried in the concrete floor of the basement. :)
