is about asio driver. Is it working with Nuendo 2.2.0.39?

It's not working for me as it comes up with the message "Too many EDS cards".

I work on XP Pro.

Thanx

Wi98 and Adobe Premiere during a deadline project that I eventually had to entirely redo on another system, finishing just hours before the plane took off. Wasted an entire week and lost a lot of sleep.

For the Mac, OS7-OS9 sucked harder and harder as they struggled to keep the legacy going, frantically working around decisions from the early 80s. OSX is significantly better. Not perfect, but a whole different league.
