Hi all,

I just moved to the Boston area(arlington) and was wondering how many Paris users there are here. I used to post regularly years ago but my studio has been down for close to 3 years now. Just got it back up and thought I'd check in here to see how things are going with my fellow Paris users.

peace,

Welcome to the area. I'm originally from the suburbs of Chicago but moved here to go to Berklee in '75. I never returned. My wife and I bought a house down in Raynham which is towards the cape but more inland. Boston is a great city=20 to live in or near. The music scene is fruitful with all the music schools located here. There's a glut of studios too. I whizzed by Arlington about 45 minutes ago on my way home=20 from a gig. =20

Arlington is a great location. I used to go to the Cabrada(sp?) Bakery next to the Capitol (?) Theater on Mass Ave.. Croissants to die for. The best general practitioner I ever had a practice in Arlington also. If you're looking for a great doctor I give the man an A+++.=20

Anything else?!!! Enjoy your new world!

Tom,

I'm actually originally from outside of Chicago. My parents are both from chicago.
I was born in Champagne/Urbana where my father got his phd. I spent a lot of time in the southeast but never really felt like I belonged there. Glad to be back home in the north. Now I'll just have to get used to the snow. I always wanted to go to Berklee when I was younger but never really had the chance. Did you finish school at Berklee? What instrument(s) do you play?

peace,

I'm about 1.5 miles from the zoo.

Nice place to live round here.

T.,
Ya, I graduated in '79 in performance. Guitar was my major but I played some alto too. I really liked the writing classes with Herb Pomeroy, Mike Gibbs and Phil Wilson. I had Ralph Moore from the Tonight Show Band in my senior recital band. Those were the days when Berklee had one 8 track studio only. I only had a few classes in there. That was not important to me at the time. They had just built the Performance Center.

I spent a few summers in Champagne/Urbana at the jazz camps at U of I. Very cool college town down there. If you're ever heading towards the Cape or RI, feel free to stop in. It'd be great to meet=20 another Paris user. I met Ben Atkins a year or so ago. He's fairly close to you. Maybe a Boston Paris gathering is in store. Right Cujo?

Let's set it up!

towards the cape but more inland. Boston is a great city to live in or near. The music scene is fruitful with all the music schools located here. There's a glut of studios too.
I whizzed by Arlington about 45 minutes ago on my way home from a gig.

Arlington is a great location. I used to go to the Cabrada(sp?) =
Bakery
next to the Capitol (?) Theater on Mass Ave.. Croissants to die for.
The best general practitioner I ever had a practice in Arlington also.
If you're looking for a great doctor I give the man an A+++.

Anything else?!!! Enjoy your new world!

Hi all,

I just moved to the Boston area(arlington) and was wondering how many = Paris users there are here. I used to post regularly years ago but my = studio has been down for close to 3 years now. Just got it back up and thought = I'd

check in here to see how things are going with my fellow Paris users.

I grew up in Texas but my family moved to Boston just before my senior year of high school. Of all things, I took up pedal steel in New England rather than Texas. My first band when I was 19 was the John Lincoln Wright Band, which became fairly legendary in those parts. Also was hanging around studios like Intermedia, Northern and Longview learning to engineer. I took a playing gig with Michael Murphey in '76, which brought me to Colorado, where I thought I would stay a couple of years, but am still here :) .

I love the Boston area, though. I may come up there this fall to play a few gigs--maybe I'll meet some of you then....

John,
If you get a confirmation on bookings post it here so we can all get together.

to the area. I'm originally from the suburbs of Chicago but moved here to go to Berklee in '75. I never returned. My wife and I bought a house down in Raynham which is towards the cape but more inland. Boston is a great city to live in or near. The music scene is fruitful with all the music schools located here. There's a glut of studios too. I whizzed by Arlington about 45 minutes ago on my way home from a gig. Arlington is a great location. I used to go to the Cabrada(sp?) Bakery next to the Capitol (?) Theater on Mass Ave.. Croissants to die for. The best general practitioner I ever had a practice in Arlington also. If you're looking for a great doctor I give the man an A+++.

I thought your studio pic looked sorta' familiar. We may have met a while back. I'm not sure though. There was a time back in the late 70's early 80's when I was hanging out with a few folks who knew Michael well when he was gigging a little around Austin. Did you ever know Seigel Frye? He had an eatery on Barton Springs Road named Good Eats Cafe.

Tom,

I'm a guitar player myself although I'm completely self taught and entirely undisciplined player. Now I just like to spend time in my studio recording my own stuff and whoever else I like. Don't have near enough time for it these days though.

I actually went to Full Sail in Orlando to get a degree in recording engineering back in 88 when studios still had large format consoles and 2" 24 track tape decks. That's what I learned on which is why I got into Paris. Loved the analogish sound and console like GUI. Full Sail changed quite a bit during the 90's. They started cranking out graduates and expanding into all kinds of areas that have nothing to do with a recording studio. In any case, I eventually went back to school to get a 4 year engineering degree and a real job.

I'd love to have a Paris get together one of these days. Just let me know where and when and I'll make it if at all possible.

peace,
T.Rossi

Ya, I graduated in '79 in performance. Guitar was my major but I played some alto too. I really liked the writing classes with Herb Pomeroy, Mike Gibbs and Phil Wilson. I had Ralph Moore from the Tonight Show Band in my senior recital band. Those were the days when Berklee had one 8 track studio only. I only had a few classes in there. That was not important to me at the time. They had just built the Performance Center.

I spent a few summers in Champagne/Urbana at the jazz camps at U of I. Very cool college town down there. If you're ever heading towards the Cape or RI, feel free to stop in. It'd be great to meet another Paris user. I met Ben Atkins a year or so ago. He's fairly close to you. Maybe a Boston Paris gathering is in store. Right Cujo?

Let's set it up!

Tom,

I'm actually originally from outside of Chicago. My parents are both from Chicago.

I was born in Champagne/Urbana where my father got his phd. I spent a lot of time in the southeast but never really felt like I belonged there. Glad to be back home in the north. Now I'll just have to get used to the snow. I always wanted to go to Berklee when I was younger but never really had the chance. Did you finish school at Berklee? What instrument(s) do you play?

peace,
T.Rossi

Welcome to the area. I'm originally from the suburbs of Chicago but moved here to go to Berklee in '75. I never returned.

My wife and I bought a house down in Raynham which is towards the cape but more inland. Boston is a great city to live in or near. The music scene is fruitful with all the music schools located here. There's a glut of studios too.

I whizzed by Arlington about 45 minutes ago on my way home from a gig.

Arlington is a great location. I used to go to the Cabrada(sp?) Bakery next to the Capitol (?) Theater on Mass Ave.. Croissants to die for. The best general practitioner I ever had a practice in Arlington also. If you're looking for a great doctor I give the man an A+++.

Count me in, I like gatherings. MR Aiken can join us too.

hey TRossi

I lived on Mass Ave in Arlington for a while. Back when they were one of the first towns in Mass to get cable modems :) I still go back for Blue Ribbon BBQ often.

What up everyone.... haven't been talking much but I'm still around.

Thats just down the road from where we are on Mystic Street.
I'm lovin the area. Just went for a bike ride down the minuteman bike trail. We have Mystic Lake not to far away also where I walk my dogs regularly.

I've heard several people mention Blue Ribbon BBQ now. I'll have to check it out soon.

peace,
TRossi
