Hi all. The link to the PARIS wallpapers is long since 404'd, but I'd serve them on the Wiki if someone's preserved them - anybody got 'em? Thanks!

I used to. I see Tom Boyles (the creator) all the time I'll ask if he still has them.

Great Jim - say hi to Tom and invite him by the forums if he hasn't been by yet; I'll be more than happy to serve any resources he feels like sharing.

I remember them well. I reckon it's time to add some new ones now - some 10th Anniversary stuff.
