Hey Kerry, It would be cool to have the ability to search for members by the city they live in. I live in BFE,(Hurricane Ut.) (very near ZION National Park!) but play in Vegas, SLC, Phoenix, and weird little spots all over Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming. I'd love to have lunch, or swap Paris info in person, with folks near me, if only I could find them. Anyhow, just a thought. Networking amongst Parisheads could only be GOOD for the soul! That'd be a great idea, John... I'll have to think about whether I could make that work technically.

I think for starters we couldn't go wrong posting more frequent reminders for folks to get themselves on the PARIS Map Doug started so folks can get a good idea of who's where geographically.

It appears that frappr ain't there no more.

I even backed out and tried to get to the main page, and nada. Just a 404 error.

By the way, I'm in northwest Indiana, about 45 minutes east of Chicago.

Not much to say but "oh crappr".

Well - we'll see how long it's down for. If it looks permanent, there are other alternatives, and some of them seem more stable and flexible.
