Thought you all would appreciate this... I've been working on Joe's new album for the last few months (Signature). Actually started it quite a while ago. It came out this week and shot quickly to number one in the iTunes album ratings list (R&B / Soul).

Most of the tracks were done in Pro Tools, but a few of the tracks that were started earlier were recorded in Paris.

Wish I could have stayed in Paris for more of it, but it's a nice record just the same. It's all real musicians.

Gene

Wow, check it out on Amazon, folks - that's all live players, Gene?

Love to hear more about it - who's on bass and drums, for example? And which tracks started in PARIS?
