Working people frequently ask retired people what they do to make their days interesting. Well for example, the other day I went into town and went into a shop. I was only in there for about 5 minutes, when I came out there was a cop writing out a parking ticket

I went up to him and said, "Come on man, how about giving a senior Citizen a break?"

He ignored me and continued writing the ticket. I called him a Nazi turd.

He glared at me and started writing another ticket for having worn tires. So I called him a shithead.

He finished the second ticket and put it on the windshield with the first. Then he started writing a third ticket.

This went on for about 20 minutes. The more I abused him, the more tickets he wrote.

Personally, I didn't care. I came into town by bus. I try to have a little fun each day now that I'm retired. It's important at my age.

almost makes me want to sell my car and start taking the bus. although in a more youthful era a friend and myself use to stay a couple of cars ahead of the metermaids and put coins the meters. geeze that would piss them off.
