Where are ya mate?

Hope all is well, and you got the house bailed out.

Or whatever.

We miss you.

I'm back! :o)

All is well. Thanks for your concern. :o)

Having a beer in the warmth. I'm trying to work out what to do to get my car back home, but it's just around the corner so all is good at the moment.

Cheers,
Kim.

Hey Kim, glad to see you back, even if you had to walk: )

Keep it between the lines bro!

So, I know there's a story or two in here....

What's been up? Glad you are ok.

I'm glad to hear from you Don.

It's been quite a voyage. I've been doing a lot of thinking, but I'm beginning to feel good. I've been thinking of you Paris Newsgroup guys. I hope you are doing well. I hope to be in more contact soon.

:o)

Cheers,

Kim.

Hey Kim, if it's personal, there is no explanation necessary, we're just glad to see your Ok and posting again. I hope all is well! And I want to say thanks for keeping the NG going.

Hope to see you posting here in the near future.

I couldn't agree more, James. Kim certainly doesn't owe anyone explanations; going through life's stuff is hard enough without having to do it in a goldfish bowl.

But I want to also echo James' "thanks for keeping the NG going". Forums are nice and shiny, and they serve a broad strategic purpose in letting the outside world know what we already know - that we're still around, we still love PARIS and we're still moving forward.

But the community's heart and home is, and will remain, the NG, for as long as you can stand to have us around :D. Thanks for keeping this place happening, Kim!
