My mom took a bad fall a few days ago. She didn't break any bones but got seriously bruised up. She's started feeling really bad today. God knows what's going on. This little town doesn't have any doctors right now that will accept Medicare because of the expense of hiring people full time to deal with the bureaucracy so they can get paid. I called my doctor (the are open on Saturdays) to request an appointment. They say that they can't take her because they don't take medicare patients. I told them that I would pay cash. They said that they cannot take cash. They could get their license revoked. She has a supplemental medical policy. They can't take that either. We're forced to go to the ER to get her any help. Luckily, there's one here that is separate from the big hospital complex here so there's less of a chance of her contacting a random killer respiratory bug than there would be if we went to the big Medical center here.

Amazing.....I'm off to the ER to sit with the illegal aliens who will get their healthcare free. I, OTOH, will get a bill for around $1000.00.

my girlfriend Bonnie is doing an article about retirees who move abroad, and she was talking to a guy who's retired to Costa Rica. He says he gets great healthcare for $37/month, and knows people who travel to Costa Rica to have their operations.

Kinda makes ya proud. By the way, the US, home of the tallest population in the world, now rates 20th in the world. Tallest kids are now in Holland, averaging three inches taller than here.

Yep. A good friend of mine is dying from cancer right now. The Cyberknife treatments (a series of focused radio beams that intersect at the tumor) had knocked back the brain tumors and they were going to start on the lungs...

And then their insurance company told them, "We're done. This is just stupid, and we're not going to pay any more."

Those treatments run $21k per.

And they can prolong his life so he can see his daughter graduate from college.

And now, because the insurance company has said, "Yeah, we know you've been paying in for all these years. Did you REALLY expect us to give you any of it back?????" the treatment center is refusing treatment. They have the technology to save this man's life, yet they refuse to use it and will let him die because his insurance company is run by assholes.

So, the cancer will start growing again, will spread to other parts of his body, and he'll die. Nice.

Fuckers.

Oh- and I forgot. He's a veteran. Talked to the VA about getting some help.

Nope.

They have so many kids coming back from Iraq that are all hacked up and blown to bits, that they're denying benefits to older vets because they have to spend all their money on the current crop of casualties.

So much for your country taking care of you after serving your country....

The reason for the new film SICKO.. I really don't understand those who say they don;t want a national health care system.

It's not until the current medical/Insurance system reams you and yours then do you 'see why it's needed'. But knowwww The Gove will do a even worst job. That Bull-Shit!! At least, the bill will get paid.. Ok, I can hear someone saying by who??

By our hard earned tax dollars that are being wasted on stupid programs and politicians. Let's take care of our own.!!

Unlike many in this country, I have paid into our tax system for over 30 years, and I for one would be glad to pay for me and my family, you and your families health needs.

Sorry but as much as I like you, I don't want to pay for your families needs. If you want to pay for my families needs I can take paypal immediately. I can think of 50 grand worth of surgeries right off the Well, Michael Moore may have really done it this time . . . his new film "Sicko" is getting raves from both sides of the "fence." Maybe someone who matters will pay attention.

I would rather pay for Lamont's family's (or yours) healthcare needs than pay for someone who HASN'T been paying into the system, yet we have to do that anyway, don't we?

This is one area where I stray from my mostly-conservative leanings... I think we should try & find a way to provide healthcare for everyone - the biggest part of the problem becomes this: when the govt steps in & determines what's a "fair" price for something & hence starts regulating prices, quality falls by the wayside. People going into college are going to forget about med school because you won't be able to make $250k as a doctor anymore & decide where you're going to live & work - the government pays you $75k and assigns you to a city somewhere. Why amass mountains of debt in student loans to do that? Nursing is a pretty decent field to be in, in a lot of cities RN's & LVN's can get a signing bonus, just like in the NFL (ok, not that big lol), and can often choose their own hours/shifts within reason because there's such a demand for their skills. Under a government healthcare system, their pay & assignments would be determined by the govt, as well. Probably this would go all the way down to positions like x-ray & lab technicians, orderlies, janitors... candy-strippers would become part of Americorps, I'm sure. :)

To summarize it, the entire healthcare system experience would be like walking into one big, giant Department of Motor Vehicles office... except it's not your car registration you're needing, it's a triple-bypass.

How does THAT idea sit with you?

So, the question really becomes: Do you REALLY want people like doctors & nurses as civil servants?

The reason that these doctors are not taking Medicare patients is because the government runs it in such a wonderful way.

Exactly DeeJ. I can tell you right now first hand experience that the 'govt' way is to beat down the vendor to the lowest denominator, then hold the payment as long as you possibly can. Let's not even get into the 'entitlement' problems or running away any decent health care worker because of govt mandates.
Does the current health system need work? Absolutely. Do we need the fed gov't doing it? NO.

You are right. But, there's a reason that he Gov regulates like it does. Working for Blue Cross for some years and my mom workignthere for 35 years as an auditor, i can tell you of the fraud and abuse that Docors for years played on the insurance industry.. We are talking in the billions of dollars..They the Doctors and hospitals were a cash cow!! Then, the inrance industry started to fight back and the medical community cried foul..Those esravagant salaries and wages were coming to an end.and people (doctors) were going to jail ..

See, we all in a three way fight, much like the figh in Iraq. In one corner we have the Medical community who was use to having a blank check on what they charged for their services good, mediocore or bad. he other corner we have the Insurance industry, who was getting reamed by the fraudulent claims from the hospitals and clinics.. And , lastly, you have we the people caught in the middle of this blood bath.

If I had to choose a side now, I'd have to side with the insurance industry as bad as that sounds. You guys/gals gotta know that when a hospial chcharges 100 for a pill (for example) and other outrageous charges , the insurance industry has to react.

here was atime when the medical insurance industry was admired and beloved.. That's before the the massive abuse and fraud comiited by the medical community hit full tilt. Now, we despise the insurance industry and pity the poor doctors who can't give the $$$$$$ quality service because of the big bad insurance industry..booo hoo.... all is all, it's all F'd up. where both sides are in a stale mate. Meanwhile, the US health-care is in utter despair..Pittiful!!

Aaron please read my last post. My question to those who think like you is:
"Then, what is the cure"??

If we are waiting on big business to continue to foot the bill for employer paid medical insurance, well, those days are coming to and drastic end. Even with the employers like GM are not going to continue to give their employee top notch medical care.

This is a cultural issue. There are those in this country who believe that great health care is not for all, but only to those who can afford it..

Now: other than the top 3 percent earners in this country, who can pay for a decent medical insurance plan (not top notched) today??? Not many families can afford on average $600-1000 per month for health care..With rising fuel cost, food, utilities...it's just not in the budget for many these days..

And, if you are one of fortunate millionaires, well, you are only one catastrophic illness away from seeing all of your fortune sucked away...That's horrible!! to work hard to achieve financial freedom, only to have it sucked from you because you "cannot afford it"... What happens when another loved one has some debilitating disorder????

The government system won't be great, but if packaged as a 60-70 percent "supplement" to your employer or self paid medical plan, then all can have dignified health coverage.

One reason my mom was feeling so bad was discovered last night. she has a condition called Temporal Arteritis. She has had it for a while and it can affect her vision (as in caude blindness) or cause stroke if her medication is not properly adjusted. She had a test last March which included a biopsy. the doctor billed Medicare over $3000.00 and the lab results reported that the condition had pretty much gone away, requiring a very small maintenance dose of her mids. Well, she's been having all of these problems and while we were at the ER yesterday, they ran a blood test and the indicators of this condition were "60 times" what was reported by the lab in March. Fortunately we have one of the best neurologists in the whole country here who does take Medicare and is a friend of a friend. Mom has an appointment to see her next week. Looks like some of the doctors in this town are a joke.

AND you're paying for people who have no health insurance and wait until they have emergencies to get expensive treatment as indigents. You pay for the latter through taxes and thorough higher costs charged to you for your health care.

So you already have what you don't want. Already. The system isn't working.

The question is how to change it into something that is more efficient at delivering health care when needed, and more effective at preventative care to lower the cost of emergency care.

There's more than one way to create a health system. I agree we should try to find a way to offer health care to everyone. We ought to be able to do this while taking current inefficiencies and outright corruption out of the equation.

I also agree that we don't want to create a monster in the process. Would a public system automatically be a monster? It depends on how it's structured.

We already have a monster. We know that the current non-public system does not measure up. Again, due to how it's structured.

Moore uses the examples of fire departments and police departments as public entities that work. It's a fair point, government operated services can work reasonably well, so I wouldn't rule that out entirely. OTOH, there are other approaches that could also work, involving creating a framework within which a mix of public and private enterprise could operate.

Any change should be set up to take advantage of scale to keep costs down.

Competition within a system can also keep costs down so if there are opportunities to create competitive incentives in the system that would be well worth considering.

At the same time, we shouldn't lose focus on the bottom line, which in this case is not just cost, but health and life. Balanced, somehow, with cost.

We can't pretend this is an easy problem. We can't pretend any solution will be immediately perfect. But it's worth trying to envision something better than the current mess.

On the bright side almost all parties in the current system have incentive to work toward something better, because it's not working all that well for most parties involved: employers, employees, doctors, hospitals, government.

On a related tangent, I don't think health plans should be provided by and tied to businesses/employers. They should be completely portable and unrelated to where you work IMO.

Thanks Jaimie,

She's having some big problems this morning. Amy is over there right now.
I'm getting ready to head that way as well. She was prescribed 1 MG of Prednisone 3 times a day back in March. She should have been taking a much larger dose (as much as I hate to think of her taking large doses of Prednisone.....bad stuff, that, but in her situation, necessary) Anyway, we're trying to get the dosage adjusted right now.

Gotta' fly,

I'll check in with you guys later on.

I did read you last post, which prompted mine. Let me elaborate since you don't see what I meant.

the 'govt' way is to beat down the vendor to the lowest denominator, then hold the

- >'entitlement' problems or running away any decent health care worker
- >because
- >of govt mandates.

- >gov't doing it? NO.

The cure. That's not easy, nor is it going to be fast or smooth. I'd approach it as a layered answer, like almost all problems in life, and see what works. What works will depend on so many variables, like region, patient, nature of illness, how the illness was obtained, cure/easing of symptoms, procedures involved, doctors, insurance, hospital, etc.... Calculating for those variables will be a mountain, however I think the very first thing we have to do is stop the leeching and free riders. Illegals? Sorry, you will not be admitted to the hospital because we're tired of you sucking the life out of our economy. Welfare? You're likely to be in line behind the guys that have prepaid through insurance or other programs. Don't like it? Get legal, get registered, get a job, start paying taxes and insurance like the legal working population. Harsh? Yeah. Necessary? At this point, yeah - think it is because where we're headed is a train wreck for everyone and I can see the wheels coming off as we speak. At this point there is no gentle answer, there has been too much ripping off going too many ways to fix it nicely. I pay taxes, I pay insurance and I take the best care of my self as I possibly can. So, explain to me why should I have to buy healthcare for someone who doesn't?

And that is 'exactly' the problem with entitlement. Too many people feel entitled to sit on their asses and collect welfare and debt free health care as it is on the backs of those that work for a living. Gov't has got a real historical problem with handling that particular because entitlement becomes dependant voters for party lines, particularly Democrats but not necessarily always. Corruption is corruption. I have a huge problem with bribery like that. I've seen it in business practices and I've seen it in gov't and I'm sick of it. Here, let me help you becomes now you need me to survive so you better do what I say or I'll cut you off. You can't seriously not see that. Jesus saw it. Teach a man to fish.. ringing any bells?

Nope, they're not going to continue it. Everyone is tired of being bilked for being responsible by those that aren't. The $100 aspirin? That is very very likely to have come from greasy suit happy lawyers/clients and free loaders.

There are those that believe it should be given scot free to them from my hard work. Your point? This isn't cultural unless you count illegal entry into the country and laziness as a culture. Add welfare state to that, though it's not a 100% as are not the other categories. Unfortunately we don't have the resources to successfully divide these groups into the trying/not trying sub groups with exception to the laziness group.

Where did those figures arise from? I'm not saying health care 'is' affordable, but I would like to get some idea of how you came to those numbers as an average.

Millionaire or not, we all face this divide. Being super rich or super broke makes no difference here. At current system/rates, they'll get your money for any serious long term illness either way. And old age is considered a long term illness these days, curable only by death. That sucks, but it's a reality we all better prepare for in the event we live into retirement or beyond.

And who pays the other 30-40 percent on those that are here illegal (how would you collect on an illegal _anyway_ with the feds?), live on welfare or don't have insurance/money?

Our employers, reflected back to the cost of their goods and what they can pay us for producing them. That's right.. right back where we are now. Those that have will not have for long because those that don't will take it away through gov't mandate and the law of economics. The average Joe gets screwed again. We'll pay for the poor through taxes, then again through the health care overages we'll have to provide post gov't supplement. Any fool can look at social security (hah, what a misnomer) and see what will happen. I've been paying my life on a fund that I'm likely to never collect upon. I'm not willing to add another to that list. Entitlement is crap and it doesn't work for any length of time before becoming corruption.

Sorry man, I don't see this working. But it's a nice thought. We've got to start dealing with our border and overpopulation problems because so many things are a result of this root issue.

Aaron, do you have any sources of data for the actual cost of providing health care to illegal aliens? What numbers are you using?

Do you know the amount of taxes paid by illegal aliens?

Do you know the amount of money saved in the economy, overall, by the low wages they are paid?

I'm just curious. It would be interesting to know any stats you are using.

Ideally we should start by designing a working system for citizens. We can and should address the immigration issue separately.

Cheers,

hey Aaron, you said.. "So, explain to me why should I have to buy healthcare for someone who doesn't?"

I'll gladly pay for someone elses healthcare. I've been in corp american since 1982, so I've paid some taxes. But, that's cool.

One day your turn will come. No matter how well you take care of yourself, you're gonna die. And die of something probably not nice..

let me ask you why do think yur President and other like him want such an influx of mexicans to the us?? To them, it must be some need.

You sound like a lot of southern whites back in the 1700 & early 1800's when african slaves were being brought in the US. They screamed of over population things.

Is the US over populated? Do we have enough land for more people? There are those who think that spending over a trillion dollars for a senseless war in the ultimate abuse of mis-apropriations of our tax dollars. What could we do with a trillion dollars back home??

So what you work, I work 2 and I am pro union (never been part of one) and pro SS#. I'm also Pro Gun ..

Aaron , today many of hard hard working so-called legal americans don;t have health coverage and Can't afdord it. Business are not offering them any longer..What other choice do we have??

Why are he only Super power without a national healthc care system. When did we become so cynical and not care about our brothers and sisters?

God, put us on the earth to be a blessing to others By wyes teahing them to fish, but Jesus stated that it is better to give then to revieve. To become stingy, and self-centered is not he way.

Aren't we all in some kinda way illegal aliens except for the Native Americans and their cousins to the North the(Eskimos) and to the south (Mexicans)..??

The real crooks are those in DC. They have been piliging our money since they found out that we were broke after our independence. heen , they start a suedo monarchy system called democracy and started taxing us like the British did. You get elected to congress or the senate..server one term, salary for life and free health care for life. Vote for your raises, amke deals (pork) big business .on and on..

The point is..At a point since they are hell bent on never giving us back our money and making any good on it..Why not get something for it(tax money) that we can actually see.. Corruption (national health care) yes..But, so is this war..Haliburton??? People will profit big tiem form a national health care system, But, many people will get the help they need in the process..

This'll get you started. And they're old numbers for the most part, = could be an improvement in the situation but I seriously doubt it. I've = seen growth in my area for sure and I'd expect the same for this region = of states all the way to Cali.

This study is one of the first to estimate the total impact of illegal = immigration on the federal budget. Most previous studies have focused on = the state and local level and have examined only costs or tax payments, = but not both. Based on Census Bureau data, this study finds that, when = all taxes paid (direct and indirect) and all costs are considered, = illegal households created a net fiscal deficit at the federal level of = more than $10 billion in 2002. We also estimate that, if there was an = amnesty for illegal aliens, the net fiscal deficit would grow to nearly = $29 billion.

<http://www.cis.org/articles/2004/fiscalexec.html>

Washington Post found about the same thing

"Households headed by illegal aliens imposed more than $26.3 billion in = costs on the federal government in 2002 and paid only $16 billion in = taxes, creating a net fiscal deficit of $10.4 billion, or $2,700 per = illegal household," said Steven A. Camarota, author of the study.

Deportation doesn't seem such a great idea

27 July 2005

New Study: Deporting Illegal Aliens Will Cost $41 Billion A Year.Do They = Take American Express??

[Bryanna Bevens] @ 11:24 am [Email author] [Email This Article] [Print =
This Article]=20

Recently, former Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich suggested that we = round up and deport the millions of illegal aliens who currently reside = in the U.S.=20

Silly mortal.what on earth was he thinking? Simple solutions to = complicated problems just confuse the powers that be-he should have used = graphs and flow charts.you know, visual aids that provide an opportunity = for interpretation.=20

To discourage the idea, the Center for American Progress (CAP-whatever = that's supposed to be) prepared a sort of makeshift cost/benefit = analysis for deporting millions of illegal aliens.=20

Hmm.I wonder what they determined?? Surprise, surprise, surprise.the = cost is astronomical. In fact, according to CAP, the solution is cost = prohibitive.

[extracted from the report linked below]

"Using publicly available data, we estimate the costs of a mass = deportation effort to be at least $206 billion over five years ($41.2 = billion annually), and could be as high as $230 billion or more. = Spending $41.2 billion annually would exceed the entire budget of the = Department of Homeland Security for FY 2006 ($34.2 billion) and more = than double the annual cost of military operations in Afghanistan ($16.8 = billion)."

<http://blog.vdare.com/archives/2005/07/27/new-study-deporting-illegal-aliens-will-cost-41-billion-a-year-do-they-take-american-express/>

I could go on and you could go on, but really... what's the point in = google warring?

Which leads me to believe if life here gets tougher for the illegals, = they'll pack up and go home or at least a portion of them will, without = blasting more tax payer money at the problem. I hate that it's come to = trying to close off our borders but how much money down the tube and how = many terrorist bombs is it really going to take for that to sink in?

Will there be a gaping hole in the low end jobs? I'd expect it. Will it = blow apart our economy. I think we'll certainly feel it in = goods/services but the big question lies in will the spending in the = medical expenses and free rides in the country outweigh it, andd how = does our legal low end applicants play into that? How many of our legal = jobless will suddenly find they CAN get a job to help feed themselves = and family, and better their circumstances? This isn't about Arabs, = Mexicans or any other cultures. It's about responsibility to our house = and ourselves and those around us. Perhaps others just see = responsibility in a different way than I do.=20

Now the crux of this conversation lies here. Do you think we should all = pony up for free health care or not? The rest is semantics, numbers = playing and guess work and I say this to anyone that wants to mandate = more of my paycheck out of me and my family's hands: If you want to pay = for it, go right ahead. Vote yourself into a nice expensive money pit = volunteer 'program'. Just don't get the idea that I want to pay for it = too, or that I won't fight it the whole way. Don't mistake that I am not = a compassionate man, or have heart or ability to help my dudes/dudettes. = I think years of taking a hand here really ought to say plenty about = that spirit, and things not generally public knowledge about me. I don't = mind giving. But I want to give smart.=20

What I won't do is hand out to make ppl dependant so that I/my family/my = friends/my community have to continue the payments and they have to stay = enslaved to a 'care' system that doesn't teach them to do for themselves = if they are able. If they are not, that needs to be handled differently = per case. And, if they've snuck into my house and are eating my family's = food why on God's green earth would I hand them something else out of my = house bank account?

> Ideally we should start by designing a working system for citizens. We = > can and should address the immigration issue separately.

My point is that it is not a separate issue, but linked. We may just = have to disagree about that one. I've been in and out of hospitals the = last year with both a sick 5 yr old boy and a girlfriend post brain = tumor. She's a tough survivor. I'm telling you what I'm seeing bro, = first hand. I could relate some horror stories.

Sorry for the delayed response.... Father's Day, priorities and such :)

<P class="storycontent">Recently, former Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich suggested that we round up and deport the millions of illegal aliens who currently reside in the U.S. </P>

Hmm I wonder what they determined?? Surprise, surprise, the cost is astronomical. In fact, according to CAP, the solution is cost prohibitive.

[extracted from the report linked below]

Using publicly available data, we estimate the costs of a mass deportation effort to be at least $206 billion over five years ($41.2 billion annually), and could be as high as $230 billion or more. Spending $41.2 billion annually would exceed the entire budget of the Department of Homeland Security for FY 2006 ($34.2 billion) and more than double the annual cost of military operations in Afghanistan ($16.8 billion).

I could go on and you could go on, but really... what's the point in google warring?

Which leads me to believe if life here gets tougher for the illegals, they'll pack up and go home or at least a portion of them will, without blasting more tax payer money at the problem. I hate that it's come to trying to close off our borders but how much money down=20

that to=20
sink in?</DIV>
<DIV class=3Dstorycontent><FONT face=3DArial =

<DIV class=3Dstorycontent>Will there be a = the low end jobs? I'd expect it. Will it blow apart our economy. I think = we'll=20

it, andd=20
how does our legal low end applicants play into that? How many of our =

I could go on and you could go on, but really... what's the point in warring?

Which leads me to believe if life here gets tougher for the illegals, they'll pack up and go home or at least a portion of them will, without blasting more tax payer money at the problem. I hate that it's come to trying to close off our borders but how much money down the tube and how many terrorist bombs is it really going to take for that to sink in?

Will there be a gaping hole in the low end jobs? I'd expect it. Will it blow apart our economy. I think we'll certainly feel it in goods/services but the big question lies in will the spending in the medical expenses and free rides in the country outweigh it, and how does our legal low end applicants play into that? How many of our legal jobless will suddenly find they CAN get a job to help feed themselves and family, and better their circumstances? This isn't about Arabs, Mexicans or any other cultures. It's about responsibility to our house and ourselves and those around us. Perhaps others just see responsibility in a different way than I do.=20

Now the crux of this conversation lies here. Do you think we should all pony up for free health care or not? The rest is semantics, numbers playing and guess work and I say this to anyone that wants to mandate more of my paycheck out of me and my family's hands: If you want to pay for it, go right ahead. Vote yourself into a nice expensive money pit volunteer 'program'. Just don't get the idea that I want to pay for it too, or that I won't fight it the whole way. Don't mistake that I am not a compassionate man, or have heart or ability to help my dudes/dudettes. I think years of taking a hand here really ought to say plenty about that spirit, and things not generally public knowledge about me. I don't mind giving. But I want to give smart.=20

What I won't do is hand out to make ppl dependant so that I/my family/my friends/my community have to continue the payments and they have to stay enslaved to a 'care' system that doesn't teach them to do for themselves if they are able. If they are not, that needs to be handled differently per case. And, if they've snuck into my house and are eating my family's food why on God's green earth would I hand them something else out of my house bank account?

Exactly. Cut off the free ride and the money and they'll be leaving. I'd be just fine with paying a one time fee to scoot them out of the country, as long as records are kept and they don't get a 2nd ride out/funds spent are verifiable.

Build "major" fence.

Hire an additional 50K personnell to enforce existing borders and another 100k to enforce immigration laws, checking on emloyyers who hire migrant workers and doing whatever duties are necessary to enforce INS laws.
Citizens of this country required to carry National ID (with proof of citizenship required to get one).

Allow workers who are here illegally to stay if they have a job with an employer

That employer must withhold taxes and provide a basic medical insurance policy.-the employer is basically the workers sponsor at this point and is reaponsible for him/her.

Employees must purchase vehicle insurance.

Worker receives a Worker-guest card that entitles them to basic (rudimentary) medical services under employers medical insurance policy.
worker can buy supplemental healthcare which will be only good as long as his/her status is legimate.

Worker can change jobs just like any American citizen.

Worker-guest card is forfeit upon leaving job and new "ttransitional " card is issued - good for two weeks.

Workers can only receive social services with proof of employment/worker-guest card or temporary "unexpired" transitional card.
If card expires, they are considered illegal and are subject to immediate deportation and denial of all social services.

Employers receive a $20,000 fine per instance if caught hiring illegal workers

No more sanctuary cities. Law enforcement is required to randomly check national ID/worker cards

Profiling allowed (I hate this, but it's necessary)

If someone doesn't have valid National ID or workers card, they are detained until they can show proof. No proof, you go back to country of origin.

Worker gets busted for serious misdemeanor.....goes home - can reapply for worker permit within 1 year. Felony, goes to jail, then home.- never come back.

Rescind the law that allows children born of non-citizens in this country to be automatic citizens.

Nothing hard about this. It's basically defining status, making employers who hire migrant labor pay for their insurance so it doesn't fall out the healthcare infrastructure, hiring enough people to enforce some simple laws and applying enforcement uniformly. the employers will raise the prices of the goods they produce to cover the costs of the healthcare and we will all pay for it, including the migrant workers paying their fair share.

Actually I think we ought to invite any who want citizenship and can speak some English to take an IQ and an aptitude test. Any with an IQ over 120 and a good aptitude score, if they have a clean legal record and a record of steady employment, should be offered citizenship. The rest should be refused citizenship and should be sent back. We can use more able, intelligent people. Who says we should not pick the top applicants just like a company does. That's how we can make our country stronger.

Maybe we should offer Mexico to swap 1 of our dummies for 2 of their smart ones. That seems like a darn good deal to me.

No, sadly they probably meant if you come here learn the language, give the same share of taxation we all have to and add something positive to the society and you've missed the point.
Seriously, I care not who comes from where as long as they offer something to make the country greater for their families, themselves and those already here. When I have freinds that pull their kids out of certain schools because they received honors by default of actually speaking English, Houston we gotta big fat problem. you guys may not be geographically in a place to have this happening in your town, but it's coming soon to ya at this rate if we don't get a handle on it.

Dj, Come one.. Chris is right. This whole bring me you tired..blah blah.. it seems..is only for Europeans..

Many many other people for around this glob would love to become american citizens. But, because of politics, they (US Gov)try to keep a certain ethic group numbers down..

Now, in the case of the mexicans , it's a know fact that even with immagrination reform, their numbers would drastically create another political power base. In this case, for now, they (mexican/hispanics) would vote democratic...

Even more important: The REal reason your president and other s want an open boarder is because they know that we need to beuild up our armed forces. Seeing that most americans (Whites, Blacks, Asians) are not volutaring to enlist atthe numbers the Gove sees fit to maintain a vital fighting army..

Teedy Kennedy today just spoke on George Steponaplis show stating that very thing...."The new bill states that in order to become a citizen a imagrant must "first server in the armed" forces..Then, after they have serverd , they become citizens.

This is what they (US Gov) wanted from the start..TTo build up the armed forces with the ultra poor.. Seeing that that the only ethic group who are volutaring they services these days are your poor to middle poor whites.. You know and I know, how the poor whites and blacks were exploited in the Veitam war. With middle class and upper middle where not sending their sons to war.. No different today..
I would not send my son(s) to war in Iraq. Would you?

Aaron, are you saying that today's immigrants are not adding any value at all??

Heck, most Americans are not adding any value to days.. Truth be told, most don't even pay taxes ..

And, if they (immigrants) purchase goods and services, are they not paying taxes??

Language: The Ellis Island crew didn't speak the language.. It took them awhile. Oh yeah, they added Ganges, and the Mafia, organized crime.. Good citizens from Italy..right..

One problem, it's bullshit.

<http://www.stolenvvalor.com/>

Read it and discover that the vietnam soldier was the most highly educated group ever to serve. They have had the highest success in life, the fewest mental problems, and the lowest drug addiction of any veterans in the 20th century.

The idea that the rich and connected all got out of vietnam and only poor whites and blacks ended up there, is a lie.

Read that book and get hip. It may open up a whole new world for you...

LaMont,

With all due respect, your friends and relatives are hardly a sample size of which to base considering everything else BS. Here's another perspective as well that seems fairly balanced:

<http://www.rcnv.org/rcnv/archives/2003/militarydemographics.htm>

My guess is you personally know more of your own demographic, therefore a disproportionate amount of your demographic appears to be singled out in comparison to the much smaller circle of any other demographic which you might associate.

As Nappy says

Respect,

JH

I disagree. I believe it is meant for those who are willing to abide by the laws of this country, accept the economic model of this country, learn the common language of this country so that they can understand the laws and thrive within the economic model.

> Many many other people for around this glob would love to become american

No, I think it is because it has become necessary to accept people now who can and are willing to assimilate here rather than to insulate themselves into a culturally insular ghetto and try to recreate their old life and society here in a new country. It's a normal thing to do at first, but nowadays, there is less emphasis on becoming "American" and more emphasis on taking what America has to offer while refusing to honor its existing laws.

Except for the ones who have accepted the economic opportunities and thrived and who mostly vote along conservative lines. As the last of the conservatives are purged from the Democratic party, these folks have nowhere to go but the Republican party. Same thing can be said for other ethnic groups, including successful, upwardly mobile blacks who have taken off the victim suit that Jesse Jackson, Sharpton and other "leaders" along with the white liberal power structure handed them in the 70's and accepted the economic model and become successful. If you want to hang a "racist" sign on "the government" you should hang it squarely around the neck of Ted Kennedy and his "boys" who created the welfare system back in the 60's and 70's.

This has always been the fast track to citizenship, not just recently. Another thing you're missing is that we are not forcing anyone to do anything. There are requirements for becoming a citizen here. The first one should be to obey the laws and not cross the border illegally.

These "poor kids" have a pretty high level of education for the most part LaMont.. I would not send my son anywhere. If he were of age, I would allow him to make his own decisions.

The ones that cross illegal and have to hide out from the gov't, can drive drunk KILL someone and walk away from it because the local/state law enforcement can't touch them since they're an INS problem, and INS can't get to them because there aren't enough of them (we've come up from 2 to 7 in this state.. the WHOLE state...)? Buddy if that's your idea of value you better get a new set of morals.
BTW, stop trying to put words in my mouth. Read back to me where I wrote that all immigrants are not bringing value.

That's crap and if you really and truly believe it you've surrounded yourself with criminals and need to evaluate your placement in life.

Ok, here we go with the "READ THE WORDS I WROTE" part of this again. Pay the same share of taxation that we all have to . So, if they aren't paying yearly federal taxes because they can't exist here legally.. how are they doing that LaMont?

What part of that was not clear to you?

You forgot the Mexican gangs, the Chinese gangs, etc.... So what's that got to do with it? Oh yeah, it's part of the immigration process to actually speak the native tongue. Oh, wait. I don't see what that has to do with still. Not speaking the language = mafia. Uh huh. Yeah. Maybe you better clarify that. Or perhaps you should close your mouth before you piss off the Italian Americans, cause you know they might just send Guido the Brick after you. Or Lenny the Punch. Maybe even Tony Soprano.

You seriously need to actually read my post before engaging your fingers to the keyboard again.

DC, it's a know fact that the Top 3percent earners pay little to any taxes awith Dual citizenships in other countries to avoid paying taxes.. That's knowing how to play the game legally.

Why are we not going after these types? Maybe it's because we all aspire to become rich AND avoid paying taxes?? That's the American Dream....

Personally, I have avery good accountant (Wife) and we do just fine with paying no more than we Legally have to in taxes..

No..I was simply simplifying the facts for you(in a movie).. Your links are nothing more than a few opinions on the events that went on @ Vietnam..

I have many many eye witnesss who tell of a different story..

Bottom line: The Bush's , Clinton's weasled their way out the Vietnam war. Same as today.. Some of the very same folks who are for this so called war in Iraq, are the very same ones who: 1) Would not voluntare themselves
2) would not send their own kids..

Your Proseident and others want themexicans in the US because : 1) Need to build the armed forces..being that most whites and Blacks are not volutaring ..

Then there's big business who wants the cheap labor.. If we study our past, this is One of the recipes that prompted the Civil war.. With the North want to abolish Slavery to get the cheap labor from the south's Plantations..

Are we heading for another civil war?? who knows? But, both sides of the immigration debate is just as passionate players decing the the Civil War...

Caught in the middle as always is the poor and so-called middle class .. Just like the poor southern whites hated the Slaves because they were (given task) to farm, share-crop, and run estates...While many southern whites struggled..

Same as today..

That's the hypocrisy of it all..

DJ,

I would not expect you or many other whites to understand the plight of the Black america.. You stated" Jessie Jackson, Sharpton and other "leaders" along with the white liberal power structure handed them in the 70's and accepted the ecomonic model and become successful. If you want to hang a "racist" sign on "the government" you should hang it squarely around the neck of Ted Kennedy and his "boys" who created the welfare system back in the 60's and 70's."

That system 'welfare' by the way still has many more whites than blacks on payroll..

Due to the in-herited racism that's plagued this country , blacks needed help..

Again, I would not expect you to understand that, not being Black.. My sister and I come from humble beginnings. Long story short, we are what you would call up-wardly mobile African Americans.. Highly educated (can't type-smile) and make a really good living..

I've been in corporate America since 1984 and nothing has changed for Blacks since.. Yes, you can find some of us on the Ball fields.. But, as a hiring manager, the numbers just are not there. There is a 'Glass' ceiling for us in corporate America.. I could go on and on.. But, the Bottom line is this, the media today would even try to discredit Martin Luther King Jr if he were alive today. Saying that he's a Poverty pimp.. Some people really do need a helping hand.

Whites say.. Go out and get a job Black man.. Well, If the Job(s) are in a White Suburb, well, that Black man will be harassed to no end by the local Police , making it hard just to pick up an application..

You all seem to think that after the turbulent 60's (civil rights) that things were alright for the Blacks.. They were not.. Just like they were not after the Civil War... The KKK and other hate groups re-surfaced just like after the Civil war.. Why??

Is there still racism in America??

Aaron, that's crap on your part to believe that every single so-called illegal immigrant is a criminal. That's crap.

Again, was every family or person who came to this country via (slave trade, Ellis Island, or even indentured servitude) criminals? Could there have been some on the criminal element who came to this country via Ellis Island? or the slave trade? or indentured servitude?

By your definition, they are.

Read it and discover for yourself the reality of the vietnam soldier, Lies. No one sends any kids anywhere.

This, of course has been said to you before.

In reality, more than 60% of ALL taxes are paid by the top 10% of wage earners.

Are there tax cheats? Yes, in every bracket. But going after the very people who start companies and create jobs is socialist foolishness.

When is the last time you were hired (and paid a good wage) by a poor person?

sigh....=20

Last time I looked at tax forms, it was against the law not to pay your = legally deemed fair share of it, unless you had non profit 503c or = equivilant status.=20

U.S. tax law determines tax status in the following four categories: 1) = U.S. Citizen, 2) Permanent Resident Alien ("green card" holder) and = immigrant, 3) Resident Alien for tax purposes, and 4) Nonresident Alien = for tax purposes. The special IRS withholding rules do not apply to US = Citizens, Permanent Resident Aliens ("green card" holders) and Resident = Aliens for tax purposes.

Nonresident aliens for tax purposes are those non-U.S. citizens who do = not meet the Substantial Presence Test (SPT). The SPT is a mathematical = formula that calculates the number of days present in the current = calendar year and the appropriate preceding two to six years. An = individual that meets the SPT is considered a resident alien for tax = purposes.

An individual's days of presence may be exempted when calculating the = number of days for the Substantial Presence Test if s/he is:=20 a.. An F or J student. Days of presence are exempt for the first five = calendar years.=20

b.. A J Visitor (non-student). Days of presence are exempt for the = first two calendar years.=20

A nonresident alien must complete IRS Form W-4 according to the IRS = regulations outlined in IRS Publication 519 (See = <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p519.pdf>).

Should a nonresident alien employee not complete the IRS Form W-4 = according to the IRS guidelines, Georgia Tech will be required by the = IRS to withhold the maximum amount of withholding for federal taxes.

For a more complete description of the above information on IRS Tax = guidelines, see IRS Publication 519 (See = <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p519.pdf>).

An illegal alien can't have any of the quoted status above. Therefore, = they don't pay wage taxes unless they have an employer just begging for = it that reports/pays on them. Not likely, but not impossible I suppose. =

While the issue of tax liability was raised during the announcement of = the immigration reform proposal on Thursday, the response of Homeland = Security Secretary Michael Chertoff left some ambiguity.=20

Referencing illegals who hoped to attain legal status under the Senate = bill, Chertoff said, "You've got to pay your taxes."=20

http://www.worldnetdaily.com/news/article.asp?ARTICLE_ID=3D55786

Above is an opportunity for IA's to catch up. Think they're gonna do it? =
How many you think are gonna do it? I'd guess a veeery small = percentage, but it's a guess only at this point based on currently = available data.

While there are levels of criminality....Explain: How's that not = criminal, LaMont, to not be paying the wage taxes?
And would you reward this behaviour with free health care, paid for on = the backs of those that are responsible enough to pay taxes and keep = insurance?

crim=B7i=B7nal=B7ly, adverb=20

-Synonyms 1. felonious, unlawful. See illegal. 6. malefactor, evildoer, = transgressor, culprit, felon, crook, hoodlum, gangster.

-Antonyms 1. lawful. 2. innocent.

See above definition from dictionary.com

Did Oliver Stone put out a new movie, or do you have another 'reliable' = source for the definition of criminal you're pulling from?=20

See above. Answer the above question posed to you. I did not, note, say = that all illegal aliens (yes, even those from Mars 8*P`) are bad ppl.=20
I did say they're here illegally. They are.=20
I also said I'm not interested in funding their health care while = they're undermining the economy which I'm live in. I'm not.=20

Any points about that position that aren't clear?

If you'd care to google, you'll find that pretty much (if not) every = country in existence has some skeletons in the past. The Crusades, Rome. = Nazis. Sects of religions have arguably the bloodiest of battles. Man = has a dance in all ages with evil and power. The thing is to have = learned from the past, not repeat it if possible, get over it and move = on wiser. You seem to have some issues with letting the past go. Why is = that man?
I'm not talking about the past, I'm in the here and now talking about = the current illegal alien issue.=20

Brother, put your preconceptions aside because it's blinding you to = current realities. I really mean that in the best possible way. I've = been funnin' you a little here but serious time. You have GOT to let the = hate go, it's a cancer.=20

A nonresident alien must complete IRS Form W-4 according to the IRS regulations outlined in IRS Publication 519 (See <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p519.pdf>).

Should a nonresident alien employee not complete the IRS Form W-4 according to the IRS guidelines, Georgia Tech will be required by the IRS to withhold the maximum amount of withholding for federal taxes.

For a more complete description of the information on IRS Tax guidelines, see IRS Publication 519 (See <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p519.pdf>).

An illegal alien can't have any of the status above. Therefore, they don't pay wage taxes unless they have an employer just begging for it that reports/pays on them. Not likely, but not impossible suppose.

While the issue of tax liability was raised during the announcement of the immigration reform proposal on Thursday, the response of Homeland Security Secretary Michael Chertoff left some ambiguity.

Referencing illegals who hoped to attain legal status under the Senate bill, Chertoff said, "You've got to pay your taxes."

Help must be defined as opportunity, not handouts. The welfare state has helped cause the current crisis in the black family by paying more money for unwed children, and many other abuses.

Black americans, when given opportunity do very well. You don't need the white liberal democrat patronage system, that is for damn sure, but that is what you are offered by those who make you promises of results rather than promises of opportunity.

That's the part you hope no one notices.

King has become a part of the culture, and his views have become lifestyles.

According to one of the sites you linked (which largely agrees with you)

<http://www.cis.org/articles/2004/fiscalrelease.html>

illegal aliens pay an average of $4,200 in federal taxes, for a total of about 16 billion per year.

So despite the status problem you mention, many illegal aliens DO seem to be paying federal taxes, and not an insignificant amount.

That site goes on to claim that illegal aliens are still causing an average net drain of $2,700 per household. However this is interesting: they claim that if illegal aliens were made legal, they would have an average net drain of almost $7,700 per household, almost triple.

I don't know if those figures are solid, but I believe illegal aliens ARE contributing to the federal tax system. It would be interesting to know if those who have been here for a while and have become somewhat established contribute more on a yearly basis than those who have just arrived.

Aaron, I'm following your links/sources, this one looks at lifetime tax contributions.

"The National Research Council concluded that immigrants will pay on average $80,000 per capita more in taxes than they will use in government services during their lifetimes. The Social Security Administration, for example, estimates that workers without valid social security numbers contribute $7 billion in Social Security tax revenues and roughly $1.5 billion in Medicare taxes annually, yet elderly immigrants rarely qualify for Medicare or long-term care services provided through Medicaid."

http://www.americanprogress.org/issues/2007/06/reality_check_immigration.html

Again, I don't know if these figures are solid, but they paint a different picture.

It thanks him every two weeks via either a check or direct deposit, whereupon he hires someone or buys software to make sure he gets all the tax deductions he is entitled to.

I think it's fair to say there are self-identified "liberals" AND "conservatives" who help people.

Along with people who don't cotton to widely misconstrued labels.

All helping people directly from their own hands.

And indirectly through other organizations. Including via government through schools, police, fire departments, sheriffs, hospitals, national guard units, food stamps, ADC, courts, etc.

And through a myriad of private groups, some of whom may be self-identified as "liberal" or "conservative."

It's also fair to say that there are self-identified "liberals" and "conservatives" who don't help other people much if they don't have to.

The point being: It would be unfair to everyone involved to generalize about who is helpful and who isn't.

Being helpful to others is a shared value that's not restricted to being "liberal" or "conservative."

I've said it before but I really think those terms have become fuzzy at best.

Cheers,
-Jamie

I'd like to hear how a government promises opportunity to an individual.

Or do you mean the potential for opportunity? I seem to see much more corporate welfare than welfare for individuals... though strangely conservatives are silent in this, or deny it altogether.

Good. This is the only way it has a chance of leaving the planet. Fear is strong stuff, though. Sucks.

I think Platoon was pretty realistic. So are other movies based on VietNam. Big deal. Oliver Stone is also the person who did Natural Born Killers, JFK, Salvador, Wall Street, Alexander, On Any Given Sunday.....varying between downright bizarre to inaccurate to totally one-sided to figmentalist to the extreme and god knows what.....but all entertaining, to be sure. To take this guy as an objective American historian would be like putting Groucho Marx in charge of the American historical archive, but at least Groucho knew better than to take himself so seriously.

No no.. I didn't say they weren't contributing at all, I said they're = not contributing their share. If those numbers are on, then that's just pretty stupid of them not to get legal, isn't it? Problems are deeper than that though unfortunately but an interesting find you have there none the less. I'm interested in knowing more if you have some data? I'm still not sure how an illegal w/o a SSN who can't claim status is paying legal wage taxes, and from the rate levels they're usually at per hour. Perhaps they've overcompensated the tax leakage up the Wal-Mart path to what it pays in fed taxes from purchases by illegals?

Do you see the math error in that data? We're not talking lawyers and doctors here, we're probably talking more like migrant farm workers and the dude that cuts your grass once every week or two.

Gonna be a hard sell for me to buy that $80k pay-in overage figure man, I have a pretty good grasp of what a hired 'lawn technician' makes since I was in that business myself, and what you'd have to put up with on that gig. I grew up on a cattle and vegetable farm and lived until a few years ago in a highly saturated farm migrant worker town, if that makes any difference on my take.

These days I'm city boy and loving it, heh.

whites outnumber blacks in this country 10:1 so that would be expected, but I'm not talk in strictly about blacks or other races here. I think the blacks in this count were sold a bill of good by the white liberal power structure in order to insure that they had a dependable voting base.

I believe you. 99% of the folks I know and hang with who happen to be in the minority racial profile are of similar background. They have an level of acumen that has allowed them to see past the BS..

I agree with you again, but that is changing, I do see distrust and resentment among whites when someone of racial minority is appointed to an administrative position where they have hire/fire capabilities over whites. I also see this when blacks have hire/fire power over hispanics and vice versa. I believe that one reason for this is, based on my experience, is that those in power tend to surround themselves with people whom they consider to be culturally simpatico.

I think that in the white community there is a mindset that for 40 years the same level of education and opportunity has been offered to minorities so that they can learn "the system" because the "system" is what works for the whites. You can argue that this is not correct and you would be right to some degree, but a big part of why is that children in urban public schools often aren't expected to perform at exceptional levels and a welfare system has contributed to the utter destruction of the "family unit". this seems to have happened to urban blacks in disproportionate numbers and that, my friend, is in large part due to Ted Kennedy and "his boys". You don't see inner city youth invited for a romp on the lawn at Hyannis do you? You didn't see Chelsea Clinton attending public schools in DC, did you?

Part of the system has been admittedly culturally unfriendly to those who do not play by it's rules. Those rules demand conformity. Even non-conformist whites are left on the outside, but not to the degree that the racial minorities are. However, if someone who is of racial minority proves themselves within this crucible, they gain respect and "equality". Why???....because they are considered part of the solution.

"We all" don't think that at all. I have lived in situations where I was in the racial minority and refused to accept "the system" that worked for those of the majority and I was treated like shit and thrown in jail. I know a bit about this myself.

I don't know if the numbers are solid from any of these sources. But from what I've seen around here, it's not just migrant farm workers.

We're talking people who work long hours in construction. There's money in that. I think they pay OK in slaughterhouses. Not so much hourly pay in restaurant work but lots of hours available. Some folks could be working multiple jobs. Motivated people can make money over time.

I grew up on a farm also, although a very small one. Now doing the city thing, too, and like a lot of the aspects but not all. Still love wide open spaces!

Hi DJ,

You wrote:

I think that in the white community there is a mindset that for 40 years the same level of education and opportunity has been offered to minorities so that they can learn "the system" because the "system" is what works for the whites. You can argue that this is not correct and you would be right to some degree, but a big part of why is that children in urban public schools often aren't expected to perform at exceptional levels and a welfare system has contributed to the utter destruction of the "family unit". This seems to have happened to urban blacks in disproportionate numbers and that, my friend, is in large part due to Ted Kennedy and "his boys". You don't see inner city youth invited for a romp on the lawn at Hyannis do you? You didn't see Chelsea Clinton attending public schools in DC, did you?"

I see your point: But, I think what's missing, especially today, with the urban hip-hop community, is that they saw my generation go through the proper process of doing what "the system" deemed necessary that a person do to get ahead in America.. Well, they saw get our Degrees but, they also saw and heard the frustrations that we encountered with corporate America..

Subsequently, they (GenX & now Gen Now) African Americans do not really buy into the so-called system. They view it as rigged. More about "who you know", then What you know.. They see corporate America as the ultimate "Set Aside" program there is. Set asides not for them, but for others..

Who can blame them? I have 2 in college now, with my son (U of M) graduating next spring. My Daughter is a sophomore @ Columbia. It has been very difficult for their mom and me to convince them that getting their degrees is very good choice. They have a real disdain for corporate America seeing what their parents have gone through in the past 24 years..

I said all that to say. You have guys like Ice-cube, Dr Dre, who from good homes, but did not want to go through mainstream way that they saw their parents go through.

Blacks in America no longer want to second-class citizens. But, they do not trust or want to play the rigged (America) game either..

All in all, right now, I would say that we, the African Americans are lost.

Searching for and identity. Because everytime we have tried to "assimilate" we were not welcomed..

So, you the gov ask us to go to war, there is almost a 95 percent resounding answer of no. Why?

-We, african americans have fought in every major war since this country inception, and still enountered bigotry, lynchings, muders, hanging, beatings...etc..

See, in each war, we were promised full cititenship and freedom, and simple equall american liberties.. We're tlaking from the 1700's to 1964 passage of the civil rights act.

Then, lets not even talk about the Bussing problems that once again caused a wide gap in the education btw whites and blacks..

Then the Cia/FBI under hoover decides place to the Black american race under survallence when it became evident that we would rather die off than to be subjected to the treatment we getting from america.. Then the CIA dispersed drugs...Guns....And started these gange called Crips and Bloods..

CIA...Introduce "crack in to the black community in 1984..Then, started imprisioning the very Drug Junkies they got hooked in the first place.. Get them hook on drugs...Which removes the fathers from the home...No male role models....Single family homes...Welfare.....You start getting a clearer picture that's not widely told no taught..Then by the 80's again the Gov passed the 1 crack gram =25-30 years, 1 pound of cocaine= 4years tops...

It's easy to see that the junkie (Black) in most cases will be caught with the 1 gram and the person (usually) white with pound is not punished as hard..So, you almost have an entire generation in prisoned from the 80's who are serving 25-30 years for possesion of 1 gram of crack!! Is i a coesidence that most are Black? So, then form the 80's we have black sons and daughters fatherless whcih equals ruderless, with only the young mom to care for them.. A Sprirling situation as you can see..

All because Hoover an others deemed that we were a threat..

2.2) I also know of NO government-mandated programs that audit businesses to make sure they have an adequate amount of white folk working for them. This all means that the educational & employment opportunities for minorities are vastly superior to those available to "non-minorities" (essentially: "anyone who is white"). So why are you playing the race card?

And don't play the "400 years of oppression!" thing at me, either, because if it wasn't for your own brethren in the Ivory Coast kidnapping & selling your ancestors off to whomever wanted to buy them, there wouldn't have been a slave trade to begin with.

Man - really getting tired of being blamed for every fucking evil in the western hemisphere!!!

Allright. I'm done with this thread. I can't have family looking over my shoulder at stuff like this. Any suggestions, retorts, rebuttals, discussions anyone wants to send me. please do so via email. Sorry LaMont, I'm concerned you're gonna have a heart attack man. Find a Starbucks, please, and get yourself some Tazo and quality inner peace time. Your probably a workaholic, like me. I do Starbucks almost every day usually with a friend, has been wonderful for me.

Hey Neil, I would only say this about the Ivory coast statements:
It did not start with tribal leaders "outing" selling of slave to the slave traders. Rather, it was an the "Industry" or better, a need for the cheap labor that prompted the the slave trade..

Those running the slave trade: were the Arabs, Jews, Spaniards..

Now, if you tired of being blamed for as you say "every thing wrong with western blah blah"....hen I offer you this:

How do you think Blacks feel? It's 2007 and racism still exist in this nation of ours. You say you're tire!! ha Lol!!.. You don;t know the meaning of tired...

as to the slavery issue whether or not outside forces entered the picture, people have been more than willing to enslave others and even their own. one only has to look around the world today and see that nothing has changed about slavery. while it may be distasteful for one to accept what ones own can and will do for profit it does not change the fact that they did and did so willingly.

You call me names...

That means you are out of ideas and cannot respond in any other way.

I feel sorry for you.

I know more than you can imagine...

Look what you turn into when someone disagrees with you!

Look in the mirror, man, if you want someone to blame.

You should be ashamed of yourself.

Hey LaMont,

Calm down and think about this for a minute...

Who do you think respects you more...

The folks who tiptoe around you, or get real quiet as soon as you say certain words and bring up certain subjects, or those who are willing to tell you the truth as they see it?

Who do you think regards you as an equal and who regards you as still a victim? What will you forever be in their eyes?

Just a thought.

But I better shut the f*ck up now huh?

C'mon, Don, this is your MO. You push someone's buttons saying things you know will sincerely anger and upset them, and then when they get sincerely angry and upset you come in with a grandfatherly, 'Now, look what's become of you.' I've seen it here a dozen times and even bit once in a while.

For various reasons involving mostly where I like to live, what music I enjoy, and what kind of women I find attractive I've spent a lot more time with non-white people than most white people do. The difference between them and me is that while I can talk about racism and economic (in)justice and all of that, they have to actually live it, day in and day out. So give it a rest, Don, there are some things that we simply can't understand.

Drugs aren't the answer... ;^)

So far we've seen conflicting numbers about the impact of illegal immigration. It would be best to have accurate data before condoning one policy over another. This is not an easy issue, obviously. It can be and is used as a wedge issue.

Cheers,

Don, come on. You're too intelligent to not be intelligent at all;-) If you can't understand or will not understand things you can't understand, the "YOU'RE WRONG" attitude can easily be a hard attacking boomerang on behaviors like these, as far as I have seen and understood up against the years here;-)

Think of the "sincere anger" I could lay on LaMont for a bit.
Think of what an in-kind response to him would sound like....

My M.O. is what keeps this from turning into a complete shambles.

Man, you really are clueless sometimes...

It just isn't worth losing your marbles over. After all, it's just 1's and 0's in cyberspace. All of us here have quotes around our names. If we had met in person instead of here, we would all get along fine. We need to remember that.

No one has to agree with LaMont. No one has to agree with me. We should remain civil however and LaMont has failed at that goal. Again.

Another reason we should keep off of politics and religion, or at least banish them to the general list like Kim asked us to.

just a thought
