Since HydroRecords.Com has been nominated for a Boston Hip Hop award, the site has become even more popular. I'm getting like 10 new members a day, with a very high female percentage, for a total of 741 members.

Whats the point? Well my 'sticky' in the PARIS forum directs people here for support. There are some members that obviously own PARIS and have run into bugs and if anyone would be interested in helping people on there, as always we can be found at <http://paris.hydrorecords.com> your friend,

justcron
