nd the ball. ;o)

That was pretty much the last time she was able to move around properly. I'm a little sad I didn't think it was a good idea to throw the ball for her.

Molly was put to rest Monday last week. She'll be remembered for being a legend. ;o)

Good to see someone take care about all this idiotic hatemailings that have shows up here lately. No one can help what has happened and is happening in New Orleans right now. The only thing is to hope that the people of America and the American Government now have learned something for the future, that the infrastructure and weather in a country have more importance than all wars for riches and oil, just to take care of the ultra high standards of living in some places in the world like America and have will to do something with it.

I saw a documentation program yesterday in Norwegian TV that showed up how USA now are trying to take control over the oil from WestAfrica, just to see that China a

I think it includes cable TV, talk radio and partisan web sites, and it's fed by "think tanks" who are funded to come up with arguments and distractions that support particular outlooks, whether they coincide with reality or not. The products are rationalizations, generalizations, emotional distractions and even villifications. In other words, politics as usual.

In the case of TV/radio, for the sake of spectacle extreme positions are pitted against each other, sometimes without regard for moderate positions. Or a single extreme position is expounded with the help of screened callers so that there is no need to be distracted by evidence or logic that contradicts the particular perspective being rationalized.

In no way do these "entertainment" programs present the full range of perspectives and facts that would be useful for thoughtful awareness, although they usually pretend that they do. Major conclusions built on the basis of what these shows present are likely to be incomplete and faulty.

Add to that the human tendency to project our own experiences, beliefs and prejudices onto others, plus our gigantic egos, and you get the kind of self-righteous certainty that justifies rudeness to others while ironically obfuscating the quest for truth. Also, there's something about communicating via text that allows people to be rude in ways they probably wouldn't be if they were together in an actual room.

In 20 years? Good question.

Cheers,
-Jamie K

Sheesh, and here I thought that we were all americans. Seems like I had the silly idea that King was right, and we would not be judged on the color of our skin anymore.

Did you ever think that the white and black and brown et al folks running things in Washington, and even people like me, are just as sympathetic as you? That we have done things, you, the Great Jason Miles have never heard of, and will never hear of, to fight racism? That some of these mo-fo's have indeed paid a high price for their principled stands and maybe they just don't like lies, or you repeating them?

Not a WORD from you or Kanye on the corrupt mayor of NO and his abject failure to lead, or even get a few busses up and running to save lives? ooppss can't say that, he's black.

My dislike for Bush is of the highest level-he is a disconnected Liar and it will always be a time of crisis with him in office.

the only person I dislike more is Cheney.he actually knows the evil he is causing and doesn't give a shit.

All these people do is Lie and they don;t care if they do/
Just to spin it their way. I'm not saying that the mayor,gov, aren't at fault-I'm saying leadership starts at the top and we have a lousy leader.

as far as all the other shit you said about me-well i could care less JMHow many of you support the backwards US flag on the military?

Personally I dont buy it. If the flag is supposed to flow in the wind, they should have put the patch on the left shoulder.

Messing with the flag alignment just doesn't seem logical to me... in fact I find it disgusting.

Of course the Bush apologists will think a backwards flag is fine. Sorry but I've never seen any other empire reverse their flag before on a uniform. Excuse me if it seems unnatural. Please dont blame it on Michael Moore or Howard Dean.Don, I said it with a smile;-) There wasn't any harm or attack at all in it, so why should I be ashamed?-)

By the way, do you find anything in the "National Energy Policy" about the American oil future? You see, I havn't read it yet, so I don't know what it have to say.

that being said....Fuck You- Just Cron.

so you're quoting Kim and simultaneously disregarding his request.

LOL...

you're a clown pal... in fact I seriously have no idea who you are or what you do or how long you've been around, so your words carry ZERO weight with me.Has any of it accomplished anything?

Any minds changed? And new friends made?

Any of the poor victims of Katrina helped?

Nah...

I'm off to go enjoy some sun, pick some apples.

When I get back, I will bang on the guitar a while, and hit the heavy bag, maybe work on some lyrics.

There's gotta be something better to do with our time.

DCTo my knowledge, you, me and Bill Lorentzen are the only ones here who use these plugins. I hve the hardware card and the DX plugins. They are indeed great stuff.

The point is Cron, insulting and calling a user on this newsgroup a name is uncalled for. Someone like Doug, who is very kind and helpful to all of us, doesn't deserve that. Nobody does.
Right now, it's a little bit bigger then our political leanings.

Been here since 1998, believe me, if i wanted to get to know you..... you would know me.

This isn't a conversation, i'm done posting, it's a waste of time.
For those i offended, i apologize.

I never sold an EDS, you dumb fuck. (sorry Kim)Cron,

I've known Michael for a while. He's a friend and an incredible talent. Same with Claytor. We go way back. Their support for me has nothing to do with whether they agree with my political thinking. I know that for sure. I would defend them, and you too, if something like this started up with someone's name in a thread.

We've both pissed in the pool and stirred up a mess here. I think this is more about that in the bigger picture.

You and I have buried the hatchet now. I don't want to see this get started again or have it get any uglier.

For the sake of this group, let's all call a truce,
.....please.

>I've posted before about using Cubase SX and Paris in a doubleDAW mix scenario. One of the *issues* with this is that files are being processed at 32 bit in SX and then lightpiped over the 20 bit feed to Paris.

I have done some critical listening on this and I discovered that cumulative quantization errors when streaming many tracks while truncating from 32 bit float through a 20 bit digital feed was creating some harshness in the 1-2kHz frequency range.

To solve this, I found a very flexible dither algo and have instantiated it on every channel of my Cubase mix template. Now each track is being dithered as it is passed from SX to Paris. I'm mixing a small project that I tracked yesterday. What I'm hearing at the end of the songs as they fade sounds just like tape hiss. I used mostly class A, solid state preamps on
