Greek food in L.A.? Man, I don't think I've EVER seen a Greek restaurant there. L.A.'s idea of a Greek salad is when four guys hold you down & shove lettuce up your ass. lolBest wishes for a good outcome, Deej. Hang in there.

>Hi Stephen,

Wow! Thanks...I'll go check it out. I also have very little time, but I'll see what I can do. This is very exciting.
I have already encountered the awesome power of Streamline being merged with illustrator CS2 - I teach PS & Illus courses and, man, it is really hard to keep the students from auto tracing photos. I can tell that they didn't do them by hand, but it's getting harder to notice the differences. The CS version had a horrible auto trace, but the students figured out to us Flash for better results.

Again, thanks for the info and YES when I dig around I just might have a few more ?s for ya.

I'm not into much of the stuff he's done, but I think he's a

It would be German for the plural of "box". :)

NeilWow I never thought he was above adequate, Jane's was more about stylism than anything. And he wasn't that good at all with the Chilli's I have not heard the solos stuff though

I usually don't watch reality stuff at all. Just started watching because we'd seen the one guy up close and personal -- we somehow ended up with front row, almost center tix for WWRV.

And I also haven't heard solo material. I may have to give it a listen -- Jane's and RHCP did absolutely nothing for me.

I'm very good friends with his cousin Dan Navarro, of Lowen & Navarro, so I've gotten some skinny on him from a family perspective, and he is actually a warm, genuine person. And he's sleeping with Carmen Electra. Hard to fault him for that....
