Anyone know were I can get 9.2.2 cheap? I've seen it for as much as $145
Is it possible to boot from a cd that has 9.2.2 burnt on it? I need to replace the HD on my old B&W and after my last move I can't seem to find my copy of 9.2.2. Could someone help a brother out?

respect

Nappy,

You can purchase the OS for $34.99 from:

<http://eshop.macsales.com/shop/osx-center/software-and-more/>

Yes, you can boot from an OS 9.x CD.

Good luck!

Nappy,

I'm pretty sure I could "hook you up". I'll look tonight when I get home.

If sending it out tomorrow by regular mail is soon enough, email your address to tony at standinghampton.com.

Thanks Mark,
I found my copy of OS9!
Can't remember how to boot from disk...I know I have to hold down some keys while starting up,just can't remember which

Good news.

Insert the CD in the drive and hold down the "C" key during the startup process to boot from the CD.
