I guess you missed my, Looking for a new Hobby?, post.

My brother had about 1500 sky dives in before he past away, he would have loved this. Skydivers are the rowdiest, craziest, fun loving bunch I've ever known!

Thanks Rick! I'm sorry to hear about your friend. My brother passed away in 1997 the same day Princess Diana died. Skydiving may have been a factor in his death, but it wasn't the cause of death. It's a long sad story, maybe some day I'll post about it or throw up a web page. The following year a bunch of his friends joined him when their King Air went down.
