Hey Rich,

I've got a PRO MPA that I bought several years ago and have used successfully on vox and acoustic guitar. Also makes a pretty good bass DI. A nice unit for the $$$.

Ditto - own one - like it. Mines got high end telefunken NOS tubes. 120 bucks per side in tubes alone. However, I bought mine on great experiences witha stock MPA going through a ART VLA comp.

Thank you! Sounds like the reviews were right.. I was thinking of picking one up and replacing the tubes with a set of JJ's as I heard it opens the pre up a bit...
