Hi Everybody,

Someone named New Venture Services Corp has picked up the myparispro.com domain and registered it through December 2006.

I hope Chuck is ok. I noticed that greatidea.com has been down for over a month now.

Hey Rick! Why don't you just send it to me, I'll send you a hundred bucks and you'll be out of your Mac misery!

James

P.S. I'm in MI too.

with the cost of shipping today...are you nuts??? ;o)

well here's what been done so far.

1. tested each stick of ram and one (3 times) failed to boot. removed that from the equation and the rig ran long enough for a new tiger install plus some drivers and was shut down till the next day. it wouldn't post.
2. replaced main drive with a new drive and rig still wouldn't post. (no boot chime)
3. replaced logic board battery and did pm reset several times spaced about 10 minutes apart. still won't post
4. cpu cooling fan comes on after about 15 seconds and stays on; still no post.
5. discussed this with the apple repair facility this morning for about an hour going over all the happenings and the consensus is...it's one dead mofo.
6. got 20 acres and i'm taking my little buddy hunting out back for some shooting lessons.

you betcha! i did scavenge parts we could test and i'm giving them to a friends son (most everything but that "special one month only production logic board) for the use of his as the engineer here has 3 unfinished projects. his mac by the by had also just expired (his boot drive failed) so i got his up and running and will see if i can get his med school stuff off it on to another drive.

300 Magnum, .06, 12 ga. 45 acp .44 Magnum would work. I say line um up, charge people 50 bucks to shoot, there is a lot of people that hate Macs!

If you put this on the internet with your story, I'm sure you could get quite a few people to show up. Hey, I might even come out for that. You could turn this in to a media event, Apple would hate to get a black eye right now. Do a pay for view on the net. Like I said before, you need to start a web site like "my Mac sucks.com". You could ask for donations for legal fees on your web site.

I would still contact Apple's legal department and tell them they need to repair or replace the whole system, or face litigation. You never know!

OK everybody, listen up! I talked to Chuck today on the phone. He's going to send me everything. I don't know how soon, but it looks like it WILL happen. Once I get everything, I'll be putting the plugs up on ParisFAQs for download. I also hope to fix the bugs in Eventiter and Nolimit. Stay tuned!

I don't want to say too much yet, but I'm working on a foot controller that will work with the Looperlative and other devices. Once I'm done with that, I'll get back to the Paris hardware drivers...

That is excellent news Doug.

Hey what about that famed new reverb they had planned? Last I remember it was like all done except the presets weren't copied over jet...

....I say stuff the presets. ;o)

Was that the one called sexual chocolate? Or was that the compressor?

Oooh, it's all so exCITing!! :o)

Cheers,
Kim.

I, as a fellow Parisian who is a vegetarian (but not a vegan) can confirm that the Duke of Wellington is not afraid to fork a cow and has eaten heartily at ristoranti Parisi.
