Hi All,

Does anyone have any experience in dealing with Bell Canada or any well placed contacts in Bell?

I use Rogers for my analog home phone service and Acanac Canada for my Internet.

I'm only getting .5 meg service because I'm too far from the CO. I just had a Bell employee tell me that he could fix that, but only if I switch to Bell for Internet and Home phone service. That strikes me as unethical at the very least.

Any help is appreciated.

Mike

They want you to bundle up?

Sounds fishy to me

Sign up for rogers internet and be done with it if you can...I did and I'm glad I did

I'm with Aliant, from what I understand is a div of Bell here on the east coast. I have the bundle with home phone, high speed web and 1 cell phone, so far so good, going on 4 years.

Don't know about the specifics of Bell capabilities, but we're with Rogers just NW of yu and things are great.
