I lost your e-mail address a recent computer crash. Here's a link to MP3's of my old bandmates.

http://www.itsaboutmusic.net:80/catalog/advanced_search_resu.lt.php?keywords=Space&osCsid=3f159f95cc02a314b1298dda1b4f9495&x=9&y=8

You had commented in the past on how you liked the music. This is the first time their music has ever been available for download.

Scroll down to Space Opera. the first album was recorded in 1972. The second one in 1998. It's fun to hear this stuff and remember when we used to try to make a living covering only Byrds and Beatles material.

<http://www.spaceopera.net/>

On the second album, I'm especially smitten with Mother Nature-Father Time, Stolen Ground, Vieux Carre and Blavatski.

I'm in the beginning stages of working with the surviving members of the band with some new material.

Enjoy,

Deej

No way man. No band. No way. Not me. I was always too cantankerous to get along in a band anyway.

Just make sure you have that sampled cowbell handy in case you guys cover Don't Fear the Reaper. You know, to show you are classically taught and hip to new ways.

Holy River was absolutely amazing to see them play in person. That lead break is one guy on a 12 string electric tuned to 5ths. Scott could easily outshred John McLaughlin on a 12 string electric, without even breathing hard. I'll never forget the time that Space Opera opened for the Byrds and played 8 miles high so well that the Byrds got pissed and dropped it from their set that night.

If you want to hear something absolutely amazing, download the entire song called Guitar suite and the song called Over and Over and hold on to your hat.

Actually, the guitar solo starts at about 1.26 on the Over and Over clip, so you can hear a good part of it online.

Holy River is my favorite out of all the clips.

Why does a song called "Guitar Suite" have so much harmonica in it?

Thanks, man... sincerely, i mean that - i'm not trying to exhibit false humility or anything like that, but honestly I'm one of those who subscribe to the: "Do one thing, do it well" kind of maxim... ask me to play some C&W licks & i'm at a

my place. lol
