For any of you who are fans of Texas songwriting (i.e. Townes Van Zandt, Billy Joe Shaver, Jerry Jeff Walker, etc.), Guy Clark (Homegrown Tomatoes, Heartbroke) has a new CD on Dualtone. This is the 3rd album I've worked on with Guy, and the first one that I mixed in Paris. It's a strong collection of songs, and has some great playing on it from Verlon Thompson, Shawn Camp, Bryn Bright, Jamie Hartford, Eddie Beyers, and Kevin Grantt (the Mighty "Swine"). Heck, I even got to play some violin & viola on few tracks. The CD is already out in Australia & Europe, and is available on iTunes, and the U.S. release date is Sept. 19th.

As is my usual MO, we tracked it into RADAR 24, then edited & mixed it in Paris. All of Guy's vocals are live performances with NO tuning. Three of the tracks are demos that we recorded over the past couple of years, that held up well enough to be thrown in with the new material that was cut for this record.

If you have a chance, check him out. Guy is a one-of-a-kind talent & songwriter.
