mmmmmm... beefy..

Thanks for releasing these Chuck. Very nice of you.

Cheers,

TC

Hi all

If anyone knows how to get ahold of Matt Craig, ask him if it's ok if I release the Beefy Reverb as freeware. This was a two year labor of love on his part in porting the "pro" reverbs from the DP pro including byte for byte translations of all the presets. It takes up an entire DSP chip, but it's worth it.

Mmm... google doesn't bring much...

....and there's an impressive list of "M Craig"s in the phone book for Sydney...
 39 of them in fact...

....hmm...

Cheers,
Kim.

....if necessary however, I am happy to volunteer for the job of ringing as many of the 39 M Craigs in Sydney as necessary to track him down. It would be a terrible waste for the plugin to go unused. It's only 10c per call...
  $3:90 seems a small price to pay...

Cheers,
Kim.

Last e-mail address I have for him is :

mcraig@optushome.com.au

or mcraig@optushome.com.au&gh

I helped him buy a Dell computer about 2 years ago. I've got a physical address for him around here somewhere, but it may take a while to dig it up.

Absolutely, positively 100% exclusively... you rock, Chuck!

Once again, thanks so much for ALL that you have always done for the PARIS community.

The last time I corresponded with him was about a year ago, and he had just moved to London, England. I wrote him again about a month ago, but I haven't heard back from him.

It would be great to get the verb, free or not.
