For some reason I can't listen from here.

Must be the work firewall. I'll try again when I get home.

Cheers,

Kim.

Not bad for a nurse :-) Congratulations Sarah. Quite eclectic and varied with a multitude of moods and instrumentation. Decent recording, playing, art work, impressive. It's creative and thoughtful. I'll want to listen to this some more.

All the best,
Rich

Given the technical ability to actually listen to the thing...

....that sounds amazingly good.

Great stuff Sarah... wherever you've vanished to.

Hey Jamie, did you like record this, or were invloved, or did you just stumble upon it on her website?

Cheers,
Kim.

Hey Kim,

No, I wasn't involved in the production of Sarah's CD. Would have been a fun one to work on.

I swapped CDs with her. Sent her a copy of my latest "Toward An Attitude" solo CD last year and had been waiting for hers - it finally arrived a few days ago.

I really like it. Excellent writing with great arrangements, playing and production.

I don't know if Sarah still hangs out here at all but she probably has a contact link on her web site somewhere.

Cheers,

-Jamie

PS. Check out this fun project I WAS involved in:

Some very inventive work here. Instrumentation choices are unique (even bari sax and bass clar.) and the songs are all catchy. =

Impressive in every respect from mixes to song writing. Reminiscent=20 of some 20s - 30s style too. It's not just the picture. Great = performances.

Super work Sarah! You are a creative force to be reckoned with. =20 I'll be buying it.

Holy Mackerel, I've been missing this "room" the whole time. No wonder I thought everyone disappeared. Aaron just clued me in from the "general" room. :) I have missed talking to y'all.

Anyway, thank you very much everyone for your nice comments. Now that we've finished our "art rock" excursion, we've started working on a pop record, just to confuse everyone. I graduate in less than a month, and won't be buried in homework all the time, so the next CD should happen much faster.

Looking forward to catching up with yez.

Hugs,

Sarah

AHA! Welcome back! Yep, we're still here. You just need to know where "here" is. ;o)

Liked the sound of your disk by the samples. Will the mob selling it ship to Australia?

Cheers,
Kim.

Hey Sarah!

Good for you! I liked what I heard. Good work.

As godmother of this particular mob, I can assure you shipping to Australia is no problem. We may ask you for a favor in the future. :)

As in "Someday, and that day may never come, I may ask you to do a service.
But until that day, please accept this as a gift on the day of completing my mix." ??
