Hey Sarah! I just bought your CD to be nice, OK?

I didn't expect to love it.

But that's some seriously great stuff! Great tunes, great sounds, great performances... How long did it take to finish? Where are you located? Do ever take this show on the road?

Chopsticks For Enya?

Thanks!

Gantt

Well, thank you Gantt. We did, of course, expect you to love it, since we do. We expect everyone to love it. :)

How long? Well, it actually represents a few years of "spare time" interrupted by floods, remodellings, and deaths in families, including the very unfortunate and far too young death of our violinist. When we finished the CD, however, I took the session logs and figured out how much time we actually spent in the studio. I calculated that it was about 7 months worth of work spread out over about 5 years. We were busy . . . I was in nursing school, the other Sarah was touring the world playing flute, and Rich and Ryan were in other bands and teaching.

We're cruising on #2, though. Already have about half the demos done. I expect the new CD out this fall, tentatively titled "Angel Food."

We're in Portland OR. And . . . at the urging of my fellow bandmates, I have agreed to start rehearsals for some live gigs. I don't know about "the road," but we'll definitely do some "shows" here.

Yes, "Chopsticks For Enya." I think Enya should hear that. She might like it. It's a loving parody. :)

Thank you again, Gantt

Local, eh . . . I had no idea. :) Well, we're gonna need a bassist, violinist, and keyboardist. Maybe a saxist, as well. Some of these could be combined, e.g., violinist or sax person who also plays keyboards. Vocal ability a plus. Reading handy, too.

Thanks,

Sarah

When you go to book the band and they ask, "What kind of music do you?" what will you say?

I found it to be totally uncategorizable... I heard echos of The Beatles, Led Zeppelin, Enya, arrangements occasionally reminiscent of Steely Dan, New Orleans jazz, old country blues. Whew!

That's a really good question, Gantt, and I'm open to suggestions. I usually answer one of three ways:

1. Uh . . . rock, I guess?
2. Neo-psychedelic hard jazzy new age folk rock show tunes
3. I have no idea.

I could say "eclectic," but that's about as helpful as "I have no idea."

Maybe it's children's music. My doctor, my neice, and my co-producer all have grade schoolers who are fans. :)

Neo-Americana-Semipsychedelic-Quirk-Rock?

Can't be kids music - I heard the "S-H" word, as my ten year old would say...
Although that'd only be PG nowadays.

I kinda like the " Neo-psychedelic hard jazzy new age folk rock show tunes" idea.

My father's wife just bought a house in Portland. In spite of the fact that she mostly can't stand us she was so happy about it that she said "You'll have to come visit sometime". If a visit actually materializes and you get to playing live I'd love to come hear you!

Hah! for a week maybe... They have a great bakery there on the main drag though.

Try Grants Pass. Much cooler people.

Are you saying you're a hippie? You never struck me as a hippie. :) Nice little town, though. The former Captain Beefheart guitar player lives there, Zoot Horn Rollo AKA Bill Harkleroad, which in itself makes the place cool.

Looks like I'd be living in and around the town of Mist, unless someone could guarantee me a gig engineering audio.

<http://www.oregongeology.com/sub/oil/MistMap2003.PDF>

This looks like the only area in Oregon where I would be able to bring my professional skills to bear.

;o)

The beauty of Eugene...

EVERYONE fits in (as long as you're wearing Birkenstock!)
