Well.....crap.....

Crash is in the weeds again. Blew out the ACL on his "good" knee (good meaning the one that he didn't blow out about this time last year). Looks like he's going to be going under the knife again and will have both knees in stifle braces for the rest of his life. Poor guy. He's such a stellar dog and we love him so much. He's so full of life and loves to run and play. That's pretty much over for him now. It's just breaking my heart to see this, but hopefully we can provide him some excellent quality of life during his remaining years.
