heh heh

I did think you made a bit of a cheap shot with your description, in all honesty...

So what are you doing on the shoot? camera op? production mixer? featured performer?

>You should get a second opinion on that schizo thing, Don. ;^)

You might be a bit delusional at times, but I don't think you're schizophrenic. What do you both think?

If you two want to rate a discussion and then complain when someone else does, that's OK by me. :^)

Actually, we're really talking about multiple personality disorder, commonly confused with schizophrenia (http://www.mentalhealth.com/book/p40-sc01.html#Head\_5). But that dulls the joke.

Anyhoo, glad to hear you're making an effort to get along. It's good to get along. I like it when people can set aside their differences long enough to have a calm and rational discussion, with open minds and sincere attempts at personal growth, resisting the urge to put down the other person in any way. What's really cool is sticking to consideration of issues and evidence without presuming that any disagreement is automatically a sign of lunk
