Howdy, guys.

I just wanted to apologize for being so stupid. I wasted your time, and I wasted my own as well. Thanks to all for help.

And thanks to Dimitrios for his kind insight.

For the record, and for the FAQ, that particular error code means "Your hard-drive is full, dumbass."

Just for the record.

Jimmy

Hey we need all the traffic on this site we can get!

Remember that funny tv ad where the young guy interviews with the president of the Dumbass company? He tells Mr. Dumbass what a good employee he would be and how he would fit right in at the Dumbass company etc?

Then the president slowly growls"

It's Dumas...

It's like that... We're all dumbasses just depends on the day which one gets the duty..
