than Waves or Bias Soundsoap, this package comes in a $1199 version that is competitive with the Algorithmix package, which is about three times as expensive. Even more dramatic... Izotope is offering a $349 version that at the $199 price point.

Demo available.

Magix is going to release a new restoration suite soon (something like Samplitude Master Restoration) that should be competitive. Competition is good!

I just tried this. It is by far, the most effective noise reduction suite that I have ever used.....beats the Waves stuff like a red headed stepchile.

I'm buying it.

Thanks for posting this up.

Hey this part is cooltoo..

>begin paste>
Note: While RX is a standalone application, iZotope is currently developing plug-in versions of RX's real time modules for use in your favorite DAW. When you buy RX or RX advanced, you will receive these plug-ins at no additional charge when they are released. RX plug-ins are currently planned for early 2008.
</end paste>

That'd be useful if you have a noisy individual guitar amp track or something along those lines; and they're gonna throw 'em in gratis.

No kiddin. Man this app truly rawques!!!! I've restored a project to "listenability" that a freind of mine sent me from Texas which was so terribly clipped and full of other digital garbage that I figured it was hopeless.

Vewwy vewwy niiiiiceeeee.
