I box.

All pieces are in excellent and working condition.

Payment with PayPal preferred.

Please help out and pick any of these things up if you need them. My spouse made the car very sick by blowing out a cylinder. Now it's gonna cost 1700 to fix!

:(

Reply by replacing diespam with jaybelton

Thanks!

JayMorgan..you got a MEC for sale? How Much?

thanksHi, guys. It's been awhile, huh? I don't lurk here anymore, but I would like to give away some EDS1000 connector cables, some long for you guys with expansion chassis setups, as well as a few printed PARIS manuals. These are both originals and printouts. I do have the chapters organized in a nice accordion folder.

If no one is interested I will toss the whole bunch by the end of the week. I would only ask for $10 to cover the shipping.
