I was trying to find the article about running Paris with a digital mixer, I thought it was Eric Montgomery that wrote it. I can't seem to find it, does anyone have it backed up or a link? I thought I would post these, maybe Kerry or someone could post them to the Wiki.

Wowsers, it's an interesting day when you find out the Russians are doing a better job of archiving articles than you are...

LOL

Yeah, it makes me wonder what else they have been doing. You can plainly see what they are up to right now.
