I'll try to do artist profiles of PARIS users semi-regularly - say once every couple of months or so.

Who's the next victim? :D

I would nominate DeeJ but I don't know if he still has a PARIS system.
He's legendary for pushing it to the limits.

Maybe we should do a roll call and see who currently relies on PARIS.

I moved on to Logic due to PARIS MIDI support never being fully developed, and PARIS never making the jump to OSX. But I did a lot with PARIS when I had it, and what it does it does very well.

I'd be happy to do it, but I haven't had a PARIS system for a while so wouldn't that disqualify me?

I still hang out here because I like the people - a group that was perceptive enough to go with PARIS when it came out is hard to find, and I appreciate all the audio expertise that folks are generous enough to share.

Kerry might consider asking Sarah next. I think she's gearing up to record her next masterpiece with PARIS, or maybe she's already well underway. I'm looking forward to hearing it!

-Jamie
