Hi all; I was browsing through Doug Wellington's "PARIS FAQs" site (<http://www.parisfaqs.com/>) and noticed Doug's got updates under way - and some of them are pretty cool! I particularly liked this one:

> I'm increasing my manufacturing capacity - I've got a verical knee mill > to start production of the motorized fader box in early 2009.

(so - Doug - that's the C16 with motorized faders, right? :D)

The PARIS map is an excellent idea too, and I'm going to make a separate post about that.

Also, for guys like me, this is going to be excellent:

> October 25, 2008 - some updates to this website. I've fixed a lot of Thought I'd give folks a "heads up"!
