BWAAHHAHAHAHAHAH!

It's "The Crazy World of Arthur Brown" risen from the grave...

Funny stuff. Makes Spinal Tap look like the London Philharmonic..

heheheh

thanks for the chuckles...

I think that was what actually made the song win, in part, unfortunately. Around here when we hear a band trying to be so commercial that their music is parodying itself we call it "toy music" ...fine for kids but don't take it on the Autobahn....

Man, that's Trogdor...in real life. chugachugachuga...weedlyweedlyweedly.....AND
THE DRAGON COMES IN THE NIIIIIIIIIIIGHT!

rod
no disrespect meant....I do appreciate the skill level, but that's a stinkin lot of notes.

When I was down in Athens they got busted for spraying the crowd with fake semen out of a giant imitation penis.

Speed Wankers!

The second break, there is a bad lip sync on the drummer; ) Second guitar solo/lead is a bit out of sync too. But hey, there sound fast!

Oh hey, I thought it was hilarious. But you have to respect their discipline and dedication to their instruments.

The problem is that it is really hard to write good music that shows off this level of skill. I mean Yngwie has already done the Pagannini thing, right? It quickly leaves the realm of art and literature that great music inhabits and becomes, well, wanking.

I do prefer a good wank to death-obsessed horsesh*t I must admit...
