OK I'm updating the NG front page. Yes really. No, really. Yes, really.

It's quiet at work so I'll have plenty of time. Indeed I may even put the Paris Graphic thing I did on the front page, but meanwhile...

Existing links, many of which are dead, are here:

<http://news.parisnewsgroup.com/>

www.ensoniq.ca is going to the top of the list...

www.laidbak.com/ebay/paris/album/index.html will go up also

There are a few new pages up now which I don't have IIRC. Anybody with link suggestions...

....speak now, because it could actually be years before I do this again.
;o)

Also, I'm open to suggestions about placing other non-paris but audio related links on the page. Perhaps in a different section, but especially if it happens to be something that Paris users commonly use...? ...which would kinda be following in the current theme of the group.

Cheers,
Kim.

Kim-

my paris posts archive has also been neglected (as in, I haven't updated it in two years) but all the old posts are still there, and I still refer to them all the time.
