I looked up when I bought my Paris unit 11/16/98.
I still have the original mime advertisement, it's pretty funny.
Paris has been great for me but it's time I moved on.
It's been years since I was active on this forum but I still want to thank everyone, audio wise I owe I lot to this forum and Paris and I wanted to say thanks.

so THANKS TO ALL.
I will list my Paris stuff for sale.

Jack

Good luck Jack with your new system. I still love Paris and will do all I can to keep it working. It's amazing how fast computer technology is developing. Actually it's starting to piss me off :0

I'm suprised you aren't keeping a small paris system for summing SX too

For youse guys that ARE using SX, but summing through Paris, are you still noticing much of a difference if you're using SX v3? I upgraded to that from v1.xx recently and I do notice a big difference in the summing - the earlier version I had was indeed thinner-sounding than v3, I thought.
