I really don't dare guess at timelines. It's going to be a while. I'll work as fast as I can, but there is a lot to do and I, unfortunately, can't work on this full time.

I'd contact ID to see about a PACE free PARIS 3.0. Maybe if enough people bug them, they'll just do it so people will leave them alone.

I really, really like PARIS under Windows 7 64.

I hope this helps.

Mike
